

Bob Franke

Friday, March 23, 2012, 8:00 PM

"While fans from Claudia Schmidt to June Tabor may have...incredible taste in picking songs...when they sing Massachusetts-based Bob Franke's tunes, neither they nor anyone else can come close to the emotional (and spiritual) depth Franke brings to his understated songs of the heart, from 'Hard Love' to 'The Great Storm Is Over'. He continues also to dig into Robert Johnson's blues, and songs that offer hilarious uses of everything from bicycle repair to computers as metaphors for sex. In the folk singer-songwriter realm, Franke is simply the best."

--Express, Berkeley, California

"a singer-songwriter unsurpassed for his lyrical grace"

--The Boston Globe

"a standard of songs that most writers can only dream about, and admire in drop-jawed silence"

--Folk Roots

Appearing at

Folk Music Society of NY, Inc.
220 E. 23rd St, Suite 707
New York, NY

General Admission is $20; children and full-time students under 23 are free; members $10.

More details and information at: www.folkmusicny.org; or 212-957-8386.

Tickets available at the door or online at www.brownpapertickets.com/event/229342 (service charge applies)

The Folk Music Society of New York, Inc. / New York Pinewoods Folk Music Club is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational corporation, an affiliate of the Country Dance and Song Society of America. For "do-it-yourself singers" we host informal participatory music four times a month: sea chanteys, an old time instrumental jam, and two community open sings. We also run concerts, weekends, classes, and singing parties, all with an emphasis on traditional folk music of all flavors. Office: 444 West 54th St, #7, New York NY 10019. www.folkmusicny.org.

