MAINBRACE; Friday September 19th; 8 PM

Based in Wales, Mainbrace is a duo dedicated to singing traditional and contemporary songs of the seafaring heritage. Their songs tell of Jack Tar's life at sea and on shore - of wrecks and gales, stately clipper ships, leaky tubs, stern sea captains, boarding house masters, and bawdy-house women. Mainbrace sings the chanteys that helped the heavy work along, and the "forebitters" that brightened precious leisure time. In short, Mainbrace sings the whole of the sailor's story from the time of the tall ships to the present. Mainbrace is Michael O'Leary-Johns and Tony Fraser, both singers with more than 20 years experience behind them. Although reared in Wales, Michael's family was one of Irish singers, and he stoutly maintains that he is "proud to be Irish." Tony also comes from a singing family. His parents were both singers who, in the 1960's, helped Roy Harris run the Cardiff Folk Club.

MARTYN WINDHAM-READ; Friday October 3; 8 PM

English by birth, Martyn Wyndham-Read first developed his great interest in the folk songs of the Outback when he went to Australia in the early 1960s. While working there on a South Australian sheep station, Martyn gained first hand experience of life as a bush worker, and at the same time fell in love with Australia and its folk music. During his subsequent travels, he spent much of his time seeking out and learning old songs directly from drovers, cane cutters, and other bush workers. As the folk song revival gathered pace in Australia, Martyn found himself singing these songs to audiences all across the Australian continent, and after seven years down under, he returned to England where he performed these songs to appreciative British audiences.

New York Pinewoods Folk Music Club is delighted to welcome Martyn Wyndham-Read to our city for this intimate house concert. General admission: $13. NY Pinewoods members: $10. Reservations required--space is limited. At an Upper West Side location (near Lincoln Center); for information, reservations, and exact location, please call Evy Mayer at (718) 549-1344 after 11:00 AM.

Office Space Needed

The Club continues to look for more appropriate office space. We need space for a desk (with our computer and phone), file cabinet and 2 storage cabinets in a place that is accessible evenings, nights and weekends so our volunteers can get there after their "day" jobs. We also need access to an area that we can use 2 evenings a month for our board meetings (20 people) and our newsletter mailings. We're looking for a Manhattan location with no cats; something shared with another nonprofit might be ideal. This is a continuing search; if you have any ideas, contact Don Wade, 718-426-8555 or e-mail <WadeD@ncc.edu> .

From the Editor

Eileen Pentel

We hope that your summer was a good one. As you know the club had an exciting time at the Eistedfodd festival. It was a great success in terms of the program, though we had hoped for a larger turnout. Everyone who attended felt very lucky to be a part of it.

In September, we will be able to enjoy the Mainbrace concert, as well as the Riverdale Sing, the gospel & Sacred Harp sings and the Sunnyside Song circle. In October, Martyn Wyndham-Read will have a concert. Don't forget to sign up for our Fall Weekend. It may fill up quickly.

Thank you also to the volunteers who help to put out the newsletter each month and ensure that you get the word about what's going on in the club and in events throughout the city. They could always use more help. For the July/August Newsletter thank you to: Rosalie Friend, Isabel Goldstein, Brenda Peña, Eileen Pentel, Marcus Tieman, and Don Wade who also delivered the pages from the printer. Won't you join us on Tuesday, September 30th and help mail out the next newsletter? (See page 3 for details.)

Ellis Island Trip

August 8, 2003

An optional part of the Eisteddfod was a trip to the Ellis Island Museum of Immigration. The group poses for a picture on Ellis Island.

Danny Spooner House Concert

by Sheila C. Ewall

I enjoyed Danny Spooner's house concert, held in Jackson Heights on June 30, 2003.

He did a fine job singing English and Australian songs while accompanying himself on the concertina. He also sang American and Irish songs and ballads as well as Scottish and Welch.

A good time was had by all who attended the concert.

[Editor's note: Thank you Sheila for writing a review of the concert. I also attended Danny's concert and enjoyed it immensely. Aside from his wonderful singing, he has a vast amount of information about the songs and the people of both England and Australia.

We sometimes get reviews about other organization's concerts and events, but rarely get one about our own. We'd love to hear a review from you, our members!!]

CAROLE ROSE LIVINGSTON

It is with great sadness that I report the death of NY Pinewoods member Carole Rose Livingston. Carole was a Professor of English at Brooklyn College and the author of the two-volume collection "British Broadside Ballads of the Sixteenth Century." She passed away on July 14 at the age of 63, having suffered a stroke a year and a half earlier from which she never fully recovered. Since early 2002, Carole had been confined to hospitals or nursing homes.

Carole was a fine singer, songwriter, and poet who performed regularly at the Peoples Voice Cafe, and who had previously appeared at the Fast Folk Cafe. She was also active in a number of feminist, Jewish, and human rights organizations. In addition to being a member of the New York Pinewoods Folk Music Club, Carole Rose Livingston belonged to the Peoples Music Network. She had just presented a workshop on "Jewish Songs of Social Significance" at a PMN weekend in Asheville, NC, before falling ill upon her return to New York City.

A memorial service will be held this fall.
