NEWSLETTER MAILING; Wednesday March 30th; 7 PM

We need your help to mail out the next Newsletter. Join the important band of volunteers that sticks the stamps and labels and staples the pages to mail out this newsletter. At the Club office, 450 7th Ave. (between 34 & 35 St.), rm 972. Info: 1-718-426-8555.

From the Editor

March is upon us and it's not too early to think about registering for the Spring Weekend. We'll be in a beautiful new place, Camp Kislak, where we've moved in order to keep the prices down and we expect this place to be a great location and a lot of fun. The camp is great and we know the program will be great – so register now.

Thank you to the volunteers who help to put out the newsletter each month and ensure that you get the word about what's going on in the club and at events throughout the city. They could always use more help. For the January Newsletter thank you to: Irene Anderson, Ruth Block, Al Cadwallader, Isabel Goldstein, Rick O'Shea, Brenda Pena, Anne Price, Marcus Tieman, Tom Weir, and Don Wade who also delivered the pages from the printer. Won't you join us on Wednesday, March 30th, and help mail out the next newsletter? (See above).

Office Space Needed

The Club continues to look for more appropriate office space. We need space for a desk (with our computer and phone), file cabinet and 2 storage cabinets in a place that is accessible evenings, nights and weekends so our volunteers can get there after their "day" jobs. We also need access to an area that we can use 2 evenings a month for our board meetings (20 people) and our newsletter mailings. We're looking for a Manhattan location with no cats; something shared with another nonprofit might be ideal. This is a continuing search; if you have any ideas, contact Don Wade, 1-718-426-8555 or e-mail <WadeD@ncc.edu>.

The Club's web page: <http://www.folkmusicny.org>

Weekend Help Wanted

Full and Partial Scholarships are available in exchange for administrative work done on our folk music weekends (Spring, Fall, and Winter). These jobs are essential to the success of the weekend and are usually assigned far in advance so please think about the Spring weekend now! Contact the Club President, Joy Bennett, 1718-575-1906 if you are interested in any of the jobs below.

Weekend Chair: A management job with responsibility for the performance of all of the other jobs. On the weekend is the club's contact with the manager of the facility we are using. (half scholarship)

Typist/Room Assigner: Types the address list and assigns rooms; sends out the advance schedules. It helps to know a lot of club members and be able to arrive earlier to help greet arrivals at camp. (half scholarship)

Baby-sitter: (Depends on need.) Cares for smaller children, particularly during evening concerts. (full Scholarship)

Weekend Scholarships Available

Applications are now being accepted to the Spring weekend for the George Parker Scholarship, the Mayer Scholarship and the Lil Appel Scholarship. These funds provide either full or half scholarships to individuals who could not otherwise attend and who have a strong interest in folk music, singing, and/or instrumental playing.

TO APPLY: Please tell us in a letter why you feel you qualify for a scholarship and whether you need a half or full; the most important considerations are financial need and interest in folk music. The candidates will be considered and notified by mail. Please send your letter by May 1st to:

Marie Mularczyk
52-07 Leith Place
Little Neck, NY 11362
1718-631-8505

OR

Alice Backer
18 Trailhead Lane
Tarrytown, NY 10591

Scholarship Funds

There are now three scholarship funds set up:

George Parker Scholarship - provides one full scholarship per weekend to a club member otherwise unable to attend. The fund was established in memoriam by George's parents, the New York Pinewoods Folk Music Club, and other contributors. George was a young man and a friend of folk music who greatly enjoyed our weekends.

Charles & Ilse Mayer Scholarship Fund - provides one full scholarship for each of the fall, winter, and spring weekends each year. This fund was set up in memoriam by board member Evy and Ilse Mayer in honor of Evy's father Charles Mayer.

The Lil Appel Scholarship is an independent fund which provides scholarship support for the spring and fall weekends to an individual who has a strong interest in folk music, singing, and/or instrumental playing. This fund is established by a loving group of regulars in memory of Lil's 35+ years of bi-weekly Friday night sings, "a breeding and feeding ground for many of today's accomplished singers and musicians." Contributors of $25 or more will receive a copy of the 64 page "I Remember Lil" book of loving remembrances. For information, or to contribute, contact Alice Backer at 1914-366-0037 or Drew Smith at 1201-444-2833.

You may make a fully tax-deductible contribution in any amount to any of the funds above by sending a check payable to "Folk Music Society of New York" (noted with the name of the scholarship memorial) to our office, 450 Seventh Ave. #972, New York, NY 10123-0101. To establish a new named fund in honor of or in memoriam to a loved one, please contact any of our current board members (see list in this newsletter).

Martyn Bennett, 1971-2005

We were saddened to receive the following e-mail from Martyn's mother last month.

From: Margaret Bennett <margaret@margaretbennett.co.uk>

Dear friends,

I am deeply anguished and saddened to have to tell you that our dear, precious Martyn departed this life on Sunday night. The end was painless and peaceful, held by four of us — Kirsten, his dad, Fr Kevin (from my church) and me. He had not only struggled with and fought this awful illness but had also been in more pain than I have ever known possible — his fortitude was remarkable. During the past ten days he lay in bed and instructed a musical director on how he wanted his string quartet recorded, and who should play what in the symphony orchestra which was due to begin a three day recording session of his compositions Jan 31 to Feb 2. He wanted so much to hear these pieces played, and, agonizing as it seems today, most of us will all get to hear some glorious music.

I think of the joyful, wonderful times we shared, of laughter, of music, of wit, repartee, fun, tears and adventures, for life with Martyn was a great adventure. I am sure nobody would wish to change places with me today, but I can only say how grateful I am for all I have experienced, known, learned and above all loved with Martyn. Our entire family pray for Kirsten that she too may be sustained, for she was the most special part in his life and he in hers.

Attached is the Scotsman article and also Martyn's website has a page. There is also today's Herald....

My love and many blessings, Margaret

Attached was an excellent article from The Scotsman, Feb. 1, 2005, by Jim Gilchrist. Space does not permit printing it, but you can view it online at: <http://news.scotsman.com/archive.cfm?id=118752005>

Memories

The Country Dance and Song Society publication (CDSS News) recently asked for dance/song related mini-stories from its members, maximum of 350 words. Here's mine. My thanks to CDSS. Do check out their activities. Singing is great, but also use those joints while they still work. -Sol Weber

Alabama Musical Adventures by (Civilian) Sol Weber, Astoria, NY

The 1950s. Redstone Arsenal, Huntsville, Alabama. Private Sol Weber, far from home. Music was a fun way to pass the time, so I visited an exuberant young Little Richard at divinity school. I joined a barbershop quartet. (In one number a colonel shined my shoes—musical democracy!) I listened to the local classical music radio station and was shocked to hear commercials in between the movements of Beethoven's Fifth! I joined the chapel choir and sang Christian hymns at Sunday services on base, hoping my mother, in heaven, wouldn't see me. I also went to Friday Jewish services in town—not because I'm religious, but again to pass the time. Jews with Southern accents. Startling! But great snacks and attractive girls!

On Friday night this devout Jewish congregation was sitting there with heads bowed while beautiful meditation music flowed from the organ. Suddenly I recognized the hymns I sang on Sunday — “Fairest Lord Jesus,” and others. No malicious intent. This nice little Christian lady was playing the music she knew; just the music, no words—but the thought has tickled my funnybone ever since. Speaking of religion, some unintended irony crept in during my basic training stint. I never got to undergo gas mask training, going through the gas chamber—I had the day off. A Jewish holiday!

The Duquesne University Tamburitians November 6, 2004, Fashion Institute of Technology, NYC

Self-proclaimed "musical ambassadors ... with a message of pride," dedicated to promoting "harmony and respect for all cultures," this critically lauded troupe of 37 gifted academic scholarship students once again enchanted its faithful and privileged New York area audience with a passionate and ebullient performance. The impeccably orchestrated program celebrated the authentic cultural heritage and traditions of Central and Eastern Europe and transported me on a fantastic, whirlwind folklore journey.

Outfitted in a glorious assortment of colorful, fully accessorized costumes, the "Tammies" showcased their unique blend of infectious spunk and impressive skill, presenting twenty diverse numbers that combined complex choreography with rich, all-live vocal and instrumental music. Regional customs and rituals of communal and village life, including courtship, weddings, festivals, harvests, the marketplace and battle, were all comprehensively highlighted. Dancers demonstrated their expert agility, strength, athleticism, balance, poise and precision in waltzes, polkas, jigs and reels, as well as circle, weaving, barrel, platter, jumping and shaking dances. Vocal selections, equally varied in style, ranged from subtle, poignant love songs and lullabies to broader, sometimes humorous and whimsical tunes.

Central to the Tammies' production and perhaps its very "soul" is the noteworthy array of traditional folk music instruments employed. Alpine button accordion, balalaika, berde, bisernica, bouzouki, brac, celo, domra, kontra, tambura, tamburica, tarabuk and tupan were all proficiently and effortlessly played, along with more familiar modern instruments such as clarinet, flute, mandolin, oboe, recorder, trumpet and violin.

This ensemble's grace and elegant ease of execution truly belies the meticulous and intensive rigor of their three-week summer production training camp. Brilliantly conceived and professionally delivered, the Tammies' 2004-2005 68th season presentation is in full swing and touring the country through the end of May. They return to the New Jersey and Pennsylvania areas during March and April, with repeat shows in nearby Hackensack, the weekend of March 12th-13th, and in Somerville on April 10th. Next season's New York F.I.T. return date has not yet been set. Call 1-877-826-6437 for schedule updates, and visit the official Tamburitians website, www.tamburitians.duq.edu, for further information and to purchase quality videos and CDs. By snail mail, it's Duquesne Univ. Tamburitians, 1801 Blvd of the Allies, Pittsburgh, PA 15219.

Redstone also had hundreds of imported German rocket scientists (including Wernher Von Braun) and their families, a cultured group, so the Community Chorus was excellent. We performed everywhere, for separate white and black audiences—this WAS the fifties, and I even saw George Wallace on the campaign trail—but it was just the custom, and there was little acrimony. It was surreal, though, to see a kiddie amusement park with two tiny separate waiting rooms and tiny segregated kiddie trains. Images you don't forget.

Many famous performers came to town, to serve this erudite community. I even met Wernher. However, I didn't tell him that when his film biography, "I Aim for the Stars," was shown at the post theater, we gave it the unofficial title, "But Sometimes I Hit London." Ah, memories.

Our treasurer, Heather Wood, suffered a computer crash in August. If you made a contribution in cash or kind to the Folk Music Society of New York, Inc. in 2004 but have not yet received a thank-you letter for your tax-deductible contribution, please contact Heather: hwood50@aol.com, (212) 957-8386, or 444 W 54 St. #7, NYC 10019.

We Need Your Help!

The spaces we have been using for our Folk Off Broadway concerts will no longer be available to us on any regular basis. Now we are coming to you, our members, for help.

Do you work or live somewhere where there is an inexpensive room that we can use for small concerts? (Manhattan location preferred.) We would need access on Friday or Saturday evenings, or alternately Sunday afternoons. In a pinch, we would even consider Thursday evenings. We would need seating for 15-45 people. Ideally, we would have 6-7 small concerts per year.
