Office Space Needed

The Club continues to look for more appropriate office space. We need space for a desk (with our computer and phone), file cabinet and 2 storage cabinets in a place that is accessible evenings, nights and weekends so our volunteers can get there after their "day" jobs. We also need access to an area that we can use 2 evenings a month for our board meetings (20 people) and our newsletter mailings. We're looking for a Manhattan location with no cats; something shared with another nonprofit might be ideal. This is a continuing search; if you have any ideas, contact Don Wade, 718-426-8555, or e-mail <Don@donwade.us>.

Sending us a check?

Please be sure to make it out to our official corporate name: Folk Music Society of New York, Inc, or just FMSNY. The bank doesn't like checks made out to Pinewoods. Thanks.

40 Folk-Filled Years!

Our 40th Anniversary celebration, 3 December at The Renaissance Charter School in Queens, was truly fabulous. Over 80 people came along.

Argyle Wolff-Knapp (assisted by Jerry Epstein) produced us a grand meal, and the array of potluck desserts was incredible. See Sol Weber's further comments on page 8.

Many people sang and reminisced about the club and what it has meant to them over the years. Founding member Kelvin Domovs paid tribute to Bernie Klee, a major force in the early years.

Thanks to the volunteers who helped out: Eileen Pentel, Don Wade, Chris Koldeway, Kate Myslinski, Heather Wood, Alan Friend, Clarice Kjerulff, Lyn Noel, Dick Doherty, Sara Schoenwetter, and the inevitable people we're missing.

RENEWAL.

Your membership expiration date is printed on your newsletter mailing label. If you send in your renewal before you expire, you will save wear and tear on Anne, our Membership Chair, and also save the club the cost of mailing you a reminder. Thank you.

40 Years and Counting Anniversary dinner, 12/3/05

Yep, it was fun getting together again with those familiar faces, but where did those new wrinkles come from? Glad to see Abe and Gert Gershowitz -- it had been a while -- and having been forewarned, I enjoyed presenting a musical tribute. After confessing that, while I enjoyed the club singing and music, there was a more basic attraction that had kept me coming back-- Gert's brownies!! The performers at our concerts were OK, but oh, those brownies!! So here it is, to a familiar tune...

CHORUS: You are our SUNshine, our golden SUNshine. You baked us BROWNies that were deeLISH! First saliVATION, then mastiCATION. Brownies WERE our favorite DISH.

1. The other NIGHT, dear, I dreamed of BROWNies; Right to my BEDside they were FETCHED. When I aWOKE, dear, I was misTAKEN, So I HUNG my head and KVETCHED! (CHO)

2. We won't eat TWINKies, we won't eat COOKies, And choc'late CAKE would be so WRONG. No ifs ands OR buts, it's no more DONuts. Only BROWNies all day LONG. (CHO)

3. We'll sing that GOSpel. We'll sing those WORK songs. We'll sing of SAILors from Old Mau - I. We'll sing of BROWNies and broken BAGels. Yes, a HIGH carb song for ME! (CHO)

4. Amazing GRA - ace how sweet the SOU - ound That saved a WRETCH, a wretch like ME. I once was LO -ost but then I FOUND those (A)mazing BROWN - ies, now I SEE! (CHO)

That was fun, as was all the schmoozing, reminiscing, singing, eating, and looking at lots of photos of amazingly young-looking people. There was also an undertone of sadness, thinking of those we've lost and others in peril. I sensed that many drew closer, finding comfort in the friendly faces, the extended family around us. There's an anonymous round I know, "To Life", that says it all. In the first and last lines, I did change one word, 'drink', to 'dance'. Either works, or you might choose yet another. Here it is....

Anon. HERE'S TO LIFE! Notated by S.W.

Oh, my friends, the night is long; one more dance, one more song!

2.
There's still time be-fore we part for one toast from the heart:

3.
Here's to life and may it bring friends to dance with, songs to sing!

----Sol Weber

Did You Miss It?

Despite many announcements in the newsletter and via email, several members told us they hadn't noticed that the Anniversary was happening.

The Future of Folk Music Week at Pinewoods Camp

The New York Pinewoods Folk Music Club was founded 40 years ago by people who had enjoyed going to Folk Music Week at Pinewoods Camp in Massachusetts. We're asking our members for their input to help revitalize Folk Music Week. Please fill out the survey below and return it to CDSS. You can also send comments via email to folkmusic@cdss.org

Executive and Artistic Director Brad Foster writes: We are looking for changes that will make Folk Music Week attractive to a wider audience. At the same time, we want to keep the interest and participation of our loyal campers and staff.

Several people have commented that the week has lacked continuity, with each succeeding program director creating a very different program style and content. At the same time, they have noted that variety is important. I would like to develop a template for the week, a model to help give us more continuity without stifling variety. Your answers to the questionnaire will help in developing that template.

We've had excellent success in recent years in attracting young adults to some of our other weeks; we'd like to do the same at Folk Music Week, by asking young adults what kind of classes and which staff would be of interest to them and by hiring talented young adults on the staff.

We've had great success in running mini-courses at other weeks. We are committed to bringing one or more mini-courses to Folk Music Week in 2006 and later. I welcome suggestions for topics that would bring in a new audience.

Here is where you can help us. As we contemplate changes, please let us know your ideas. Please be brief with your answers on the survey; you can also provide more detail on another sheet. Please send any comments and ideas that occur to you later to: folkmusic@cdss.org.

Thanks for your help!
