From the Editor

By the time you receive this April newsletter, spring will have finally arrived. With it come our concerts: Happy Traum, the Sea Music Concert, and Anne Price; and our singing events, The Folk Open Sing, Sacred Harp and Gospel Sings, and the Chantey Sing. Don't forget to sign up for the weekend. We'll have a great time in a great place with great accommodations and great music. There's still space, and there are still scholarships available; see page 6.

We have some sad news. Lucy Simpson died last month. I remember Lucy telling me how shy she was and how people in the club were so encouraging to her. I will never forget her courage and her humor, and that of her family, in facing her long illness. We will miss her. See the articles in this newsletter.

Thank you to the volunteers who help to put out the newsletter each month and ensure that you get the word about what's going on in the club and at events throughout the city. They could always use more help. For the November/December newsletter thank you to: Herb Feuerlicht, Isabel Goldstein, Brenda Pena, Mariann Perseo, Anne Price, Marcus Tieman, and Don Wade who also delivered the pages from the printer. Won't you join us on Wednesday, April 26, and help mail out the May newsletter? (See above and note that we will be in a different location--in Queens.)

Office Space Needed - Now!

The Club has an immediate need for more appropriate office space. We need space for a desk (with our computer and phone), file cabinet and 2 storage cabinets in a place that is accessible evenings, nights and weekends so our volunteers can get there after their "day" jobs. We also need access to an area that we can use 2 evenings a month for our board meetings (20 people) and our newsletter mailings. We're looking for a Manhattan location with no cats; something shared with another nonprofit might be ideal. This is a continuing search; if you have any ideas, contact Don Wade, 718-426-8555, or e-mail <Don@donwade.us>.

Weekend Scholarships Available

Applications are now being accepted to the Spring weekend for the George Parker Scholarship, the Mayer Scholarship and the Lil Appel Scholarship. These funds provide either full or half scholarships to individuals who could not otherwise attend and who have a strong interest in folk music, singing, and/or instrumental playing.

TO APPLY: Please request an application from the address below. The most important considerations are financial need and interest in folk music. The candidates will be considered and notified by mail.

Please request the application immediately and submit by April 30 to:

Marilyn Suffet,

41-05 47th Street, Sunnyside, NY 11104.

Phone: 718-786-1533; E-mail: Suffet@att.net

Scholarship Funds

There are now three scholarship funds set up:

George Parker Scholarship - provides one full scholarship per weekend to a club member otherwise unable to attend. The fund was established in memoriam by George's parents, the New York Pinewoods Folk Music Club, and other contributors. George was a young man and a friend of folk music who greatly enjoyed our weekends.

Charles & Ilse Mayer Scholarship Fund - provides one full scholarship for each of the fall, winter, and spring weekends each year. This fund was set up in memoriam by board member Evy and Ilse Mayer in honor of Evy's father Charles Mayer.

The Lil Appel Scholarship is an independent fund which provides scholarship support for the spring and fall weekends to an individual who has a strong interest in folk music, singing, and/or instrumental playing. This fund is established by a loving group of regulars in memory of Lil's 35+ years of bi-weekly Friday night sings, "a breeding and feeding ground for many of today's accomplished singers and musicians." Contributors of $25 or more will receive a copy of the 64 page "I Remember Lil" book of loving remembrances. For information, or to contribute, contact Alice Backer at 914-366-0037 or Drew Smith at 201-444-2833.

You may make a fully tax-deductible contribution in any amount to the other funds above by sending a check payable to "FMSNY" (noted with the name of the scholarship memorial) to our treasurer, Heather Wood, 444 W 54 St #7, New York NY 10019. To establish a new named fund in honor of or in memoriam to a loved one, please contact any of our current board members (see list in this newsletter).

The Folk Process

by Ruth Lipman

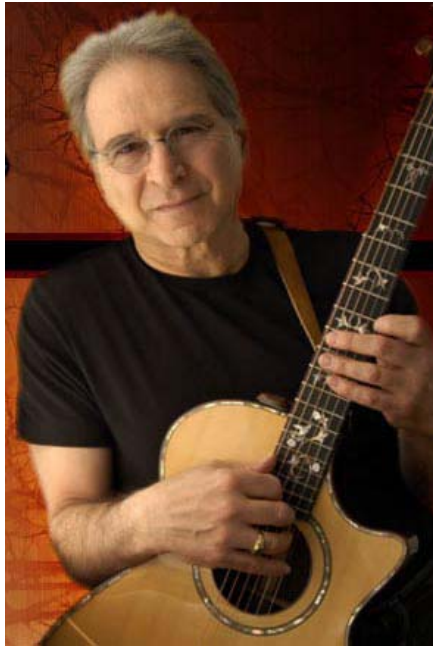

We have sad news this month. Lucy Simpson died in early March after a long battle with cancer. Lucy, a long time member, "found" her voice through the club. Initially a little bit reticent about solo singing, she soon blossomed as a performer and her clear, rich tones rang out. So many of us remember Lucy and her beautiful voice. The club extends condolences to her husband, Barry Simpson, her daughter, Shelley Lancet, and family. A memorial service will be held on May 6, look for more details next month.

If you have news to share, please contact me at 372 Central Park West, #15B, New York, NY; 212-663-6309.

Bob Blue

It is with great sadness that we report that songwriter, performer, school teacher, and friend Bob Blue passed away in his sleep early on the morning of March 17. He was not quite 58 years old. Bob suffered from multiple sclerosis, and his physical condition had slowly deteriorated over the past decade to the point that he required a full time personal care assistant. Nevertheless, Bob remained as active as he could, writing children's songs and stories, leading song swaps and workshops, participating in both the Children's Music Network and the People's Music Network, and hosting the Stone Soup Cafe in his home town of Amherst, MA. In recent years, he ran the cafe out of his apartment. Bob had been scheduled to appear in a children's concert at the New England Folk Festival this year, although he would have done so with the help of many of his musical friends. Perhaps that concert will still take place as a tribute to him.

Bob Blue was a person of enormous talent, and he was also a person of great courage, humor, wisdom, and warmth. That is truly a rare combination. We will miss him.

Lucy Simpson, 1940-2006

Lucy and I met at a Folk Music Week at Pinewoods Camp. At first, she was an unknown voice singing in a dark corner very late at night, when most other people had gone to bed and the number left was small enough for her to brave singing solo. I can't remember what she sang (hey, it was 30 years ago), but the singing was so fine, so true and unforced, that the short (too short) span of the song could not possibly be enough. Over many years, a shared love of good talk, as well as a love of singing, gradually drew us together. The friendship deepened when I volunteered to do paste-up (the part she least enjoyed) on the periodical she published as an aid for teachers committed to equality in education of both sexes. We spent many hours working together on each issue and, often asked to join them for dinner, I got to know her family as well, and almost felt a part of it. Through it all, the talk went on, exploring shared likes and dislikes, similar and disparate life experiences, areas of expertise and ignorance. As much for my friend, I see that this is an obituary for a friendship. I will miss both very much.

--Maddy De Leon, 3/20/06

PINEWOODS FOLK MUSIC WEEK JULY 22-29

Folk Music Week offers a wide range of activities to appeal to all musical tastes, interests and experiences. Advanced musicians can work intensively, amateurs are challenged and engaged and beginners are always made to feel welcome.

Traditional song and its interpretation is a particular strength this year-our staff members are foremost among those who have shaped and influenced our understanding of what folk song is and of its place in the societies in which it flourishes. We'll also focus on appropriate and effective use of instrumental accompaniment-for song as well as dance. And we'll have a lot of fun doing it all.

Folk Music Week is one of 11 weeklong programs run by
The Country Dance and Song Society
