SPRING FOLK MUSIC WEEKEND; May 26-29

This will be the second time that we are going to Camp Kislak for our spring weekend. Getting used to new places is often a challenge--especially when the trip is long, and we are tired. But what a treat awaited us! The accommodations were comparable to comfortable motel rooms, which were pleasantly decorated, and most important, with comfortable beds. The staff was helpful and the performance space, with comfortable chairs, added to the musical atmosphere. Imagine all of this, plus the heated pool and beautiful settings, and add the weekend performers--John Roberts, Lisa Preston, George Ward, Mark Gilston and Erica Weiss, and we are all in for a treat. There are lots of places perfect for making our own music as well. There is still room, so sign up quickly. See the flyer for more details. See the flyer in the centerfold.

From the Editor

As I write this column, the weather outside is sunny, warm and wonderful. It makes me think of our wonderful spring weekend coming up. Camp Kislak has great accommodations, a heated pool, and a wonderful setting. Best of all, the music will be exciting and varied, and there is still space. See you at the camp.

Don't forget the rest of the concerts and events this May! There will be the Sea Music concert featuring John Roberts, a Mark Gilston house concert, and the Sings—Folk Open Sing, Chantey Sing, the Gospel and Sacred Harp Sings. On a sadder note, there will be a Singing and Remembrance Celebration of Lucy Simpson, as well.

Mark your calendars now for the June 2nd Peter Ostroushko concert—just in case you don't get the June newsletter in time.

Please note that the newsletter mailings will be in different locations now. The management company we rent space from has decided to charge for the use of the conference room. This is just one more reason for us to find another office space. Please let us know if you have any leads. Check the newsletter for details.

Thank you to the volunteers who help to put out the newsletter each month and ensure that you get the word about what's going on in the club and at events throughout the city. They could always use more help. For the last newsletter thank you to: Herb Feuerlicht, Isabel Goldstein, Brenda Pena, Mariann Perseo, Eileen Pentel, Anne Price, Marcus Tieman, and Don Wade who also delivered the pages from the printer. Won't you join us on Wednesday, May 24, and help mail out the next newsletter? (See page 3 and note that we will be in a different location.)

The Folk Process

by Ruth Lipman

On April 21st, MARILYN and WOODY KOZIN moved to Palm Isles, a senior community in Boynton Beach, Florida. They plan to be occupied with the many structured activities offered by the community as well as with cultural events at the nearby Kravitz Performing Arts Center. They are also planning to join the South Florida Folk Music Club. Woody and Marilyn bid farewell to all of their folk music friends in Pinewoods. They will miss us, but plan to stay in touch with visits to New York during the summer. They send their love to all and invite members to come and visit them. Best of luck in your new venture, Woody and Marilyn. We will miss you too.

If you have news to share, please contact me at 372 Central Park West, #15B, New York, NY; 212-663-6309.

Peter Ostroushko

in concert with Arkan

Friday 2 June '06,
7:30 p.m.

At the Community Church
40 E. 35 St (upstairs)
between Park & Madison,

Peter Ostroushko is one of the finest mandolin and fiddle players in acoustic music. His tours have taken him to clubs, performing arts centers, music festivals and theatres across North America and Europe, and he has earned an international reputation as a versatile, dazzling master of instrumentation and composition. He is a frequent guest on A Prairie Home Companion.

Peter plays a rich ethnic mix, at the heart of which is his Ukrainian heritage. His term for his gumbo of musical styles is "slüz düz," a phrase borrowed from his mother, meaning, roughly, "over the edge" or "off his rocker."

Arkan (Arkadiy Yushin), from Minsk, Belarus, is a professional recording and performance musician, composer, and guitar multistylist, as well as a private teacher of guitar, theory and advanced improvisational techniques.

Wanted By NY Pinewoods Folk Music Club!

Socialites? Sociologists? Social Workers?

Actually what our club wants are SOCIAL EVENT HOSTS! Those are members who are ready, willing, and able to host community sings, song circles, pub nights, singing parties, picnics, days out in the park, and all sorts of other fun events. These can be one shot affairs, they can be occasional events, or they can be ongoing events. Being a host requires a little bit of effort and a little bit of patience, and perhaps a little outlay of money (and perhaps not). But the rewards will be enormous, by which we mean the satisfaction which comes from the sharing of music and friendship.

If you have even the slightest inkling that you are up to the task of being a social event host, please contact us by e-mail at suffet@att.net or by phone at 1-718-786-1533. We will discuss the particulars, including the type of event, date, time, place, and what support you need from the club. We will then present your idea to the Executive Board for its approval, which is required for an event to carry club sponsorship. Once the Board approves, the event will be listed in the New York Pinewoods newsletter.

That's not so hard, is it? So who wants to step up first?

--- Marilyn & Stephen Suffet, Social Co-Chairs

Folk Fone Help Wanted

We work on a rotating schedule and each person records about once every 3 weeks. Contact Don Wade, <Don@donwade.us>, 718-426-8555.

CD Review

"Toby Fagenson: The Parody Man"

No Pinewoods Club weekend is complete without the warm presence and great songs (funny AND serious) of Toby Fagenson. He does write the greatest parodies, and here are 12 of them (plus 6 more short ones).

All the words are Toby's, and he's the principal performer, along with a supporting cast of backup singers and instrumentalists. There's the lively, toe-tapping "Picasso" (originally "Chicago"); "Starbucks" ("Stardust"); the startling, funny, irresistible "P.O.T.T." ("Puttin on the Ritz"); and "The R&H Factor" (comparing the singable tunes of Rodgers to the travails of getting through those difficult numbers in "West Side Story"). Then of course there's "Slowing Down to Lethargy" ("Old Maui"), ribbing those singers who stretch the music out just to hear their own voices. And many more -- singing, strumming, whistling, and even the occasional trumpet. Music by Gershwin, Bernstein, Berlin, Rodgers, Duke Ellington, Jimmy Buffett, Hoagy Carmichael, and others.

On Sat., May 20, at 9pm, there will be a release party for the CD at 22 Below, Gustavus Adolphus Church on E. 22nd St. (Between Lex. And Third Aves.) And on Sunday, May 21, two songs from the CD will be played on Bob Sherman's "Woody's Children," program over WFUV (90.7 Fm.) The CD is $17 (including shipping) from: Toby Fagenson, 301 E. 66th St, Apt 2K, NY NY 10021-6206; 212-861-7019.

Do also check out his earlier recordings, which include a variety of his other wonderful songs -- excellent serious numbers AND various very funny (non-parody) songs. Catch him in person, at a weekend or concert.

—Sol Weber

CHANGE AT JAMAICA FAREWELL – BOB WEINSTEIN

One fine day I made my way
To see my wife and family in Riverhead:
Boarded a car on the LIRR.
“You must change at Jamaica,” the conductor said.

(chorus:)
But I’m sad to say I lost my way;
I’ve been riding for many a day.
Been trav’ling through towns whose names are awful strange
‘Cause when I reached Jamaica I forgot to change.

The train pulled out and I had my doubts
As through Locust Manor station we did run,
And then I knew that I was through
When the conductor said, “Next station Laurelton.”

(chorus)

At Valley Stream I began to scream
As I knew that night I’d never get to bed;
I nearly died when the conductor cried,
“Here’s where you change for the shuttle to West Hempstead.”

(chorus)

Then at a glance I saw my chance:
That train across the track might get me home all right:
With its fine bar and its parlor car
It lurched majestically into the looming night.

(chorus)

But, as I feared, town names grew weird:
Massapequa, Copiague, Blue Point, Patchogue;
And then, alas! the coup de grace:
The engine died and now I’m stranded here in Quogue.

(chorus)

My story’s through, and I hope that you
Will not forget my example: my advice, don’t spurn:
Where’er you are on the LIRR,
You must change at Jamaica, or you’ll ne’er return.

You’ll be sad to say you lost your way;
You’ll be riding for many a day.
You’ll travel through towns whose names are awful strange
If when you reach Jamaica you forget to change.

Office Space Needed - Now!

The Club has an immediate need for more appropriate office space. We need space for a desk (with our computer and phone), file cabinet and 2 storage cabinets in a place that is accessible evenings, nights and weekends so our volunteers can get there after their "day" jobs. We also need access to an area that we can use 2 evenings a month for our board meetings (20 people) and our newsletter mailings. We're looking for a Manhattan location with no cats; something shared with another nonprofit might be ideal. If you have any concrete information, contact Don Wade, 718-426-8555, or e-mail <Don@donwade.us>.

Folk Calendar Listings Info

This list gives more detailed information for locations listed in the chronological Events Listings. It does not generally include information about locations in the Repeating Events listings

Space requirements force this info to be AN ABRIDGED LIST. For a complete listing of locations not in the calendar, see the July/August issue. For a listing of Dance events, see the September 2002 issue. Most of the events in the listings are not run by the Club, and the information given is the best available at press time. Additions and Corrections to this list are most welcome! Send location info.n to: Don Wade, 35-41 72nd St, Jackson Heights, NY 11372; E-Mail: Don@donwade.us.

PINEWOODS FOLK MUSIC WEEK JULY 22-29

Folk Music Week offers a wide range of activities to appeal to all musical tastes, interests and experiences. Advanced musicians can work intensively, amateurs are challenged and engaged and beginners are always made to feel welcome.

Traditional song and its interpretation is a particular strength this year—our staff members are foremost among those who have shaped and influenced our understanding of what folk song is and of its place in the societies in which it flourishes. We'll also focus on appropriate and effective use of instrumental accompaniment—for song as well as dance. And we'll have a lot of fun doing it all.

Folk Music Week is one of 11 weeklong programs run by
The Country Dance and Song Society
