Co-sponsored with the South Street Seaport Museum. At the Museum's Melville Gallery, 209 Water Street, between Fulton & Beekman. Call 212-691-7610 for directions. June 6 - Johnson Girls. New York's favorite maritime chanteuses will sing some of their newest songs as well as their tried-and-true chestnuts. This is likely to be their only NYC concert of 2006, so it's a definite "do not miss" date.

June 13 - Brian Peters: Brian is from England and a top-notch button accordionist as well as being a fine concertina and guitar player, and singer. He has a deep repertoire of maritime songs. .

June 20 - Hughie Jones. Hughie is a legend in his native England. One of the famous Liverpool Spinners, who made over 30 albums in Britain, he is a strong performer who sings both traditional and original maritime songs with guitar backing.

June 27 - "Anything But The Sea." Each year, The New York Packet explores the land with a concert exclusively of shoreside ballads and songs. This week you'll hear about all kinds of landlubbers - lovers, mothers, cowboys, railroaders, miners and more, but nary a sailor in the bunch!

July 4 - no concert. .

ALAN FRIEND was awarded a medal by the Joslin Diabetes Center for "fifty courageous years" of coping with type-1 diabetes. Only 2200 medals have been awarded since 1970. Careful attention to details 24 hours a day for half a century has resulted in good health with no major medical complications for Alan.

KATE MYSLINSKI and DAVID KLEIMAN want to share some wonderful news. Kate's first grandchild, AMELIA ELIZABETH PRICE, daughter of MARK and SHARLYN PRICE, was born on May 1, 2006 at 7:00 A.M. She's "perfect in every way," says Kate. Welcome to the world, Amelia Elizabeth.

SHEILA EWALL had a lovely time on a recent excursion to the Strawberry Festival in Peddler's Village, Pennsylvania and to the nearby town of New Hope. Peddler's Village, where she heard some bluegrass music, reminded Sheila of the Kutztown Festival and the quaint town of New Hope evoked memories of Kent, Connecticut, which is near Camp Freedman.

If you have news to share, please contact me at 372 Central Park West, #15B, New York, NY; 212-663-6309.

Office Space Needed - Now!

The Club has an immediate need for more appropriate office space. We need space for a desk (with our computer and phone), file cabinet and 2 storage cabinets in a place that is accessible evenings, nights and weekends so our volunteers can get there after their "day" jobs. We also need access to an area that we can use 2 evenings a month for our board meetings (20 people) and our newsletter mailings. We're looking for a Manhattan location with no cats; something shared with another nonprofit might be ideal. If you have any concrete information, contact Don Wade, 718-426-8555, or e-mail <Don@donwade.us>.

The Heritage of John Langstaff

As we reported in the January issue, John (Jack) Langstaff died in December, two weeks short of his 85th birthday. To mark the passing of this unique figure in the modern folk revival, The Folk Music Society of NY, Inc and The New York Revels are sponsoring a one day conference on his heritage and an evening memorial celebration. The almost certain date is Saturday, September 30, and will be confirmed by the time you read this. Please check the summer issue or the Club website. The event is also co-sponsored by the Country Dance & Song Society and Revels, Inc. (Cambridge, MA). Panel discussion in the day time will center on the central aspects of Jack's professional life: Music, Dance & Movement in the Education of Children and Teachers, Tradition as Theatre and Theatre as Tradition, Accompaniment and Arrangement in Traditional Folk Song, and Ritual and Ceremony for the 21st Century. Participants so far include, Tony Barrand, Susan Cooper, John Roberts, Larry Rosenwald, Paddy Swanson, Jerry Epstein, and (if we can raise the money) Keith Kendrick. There will be many more, to be announced next month. The evening celebration will have all of the above plus the Greenwich Morris Men, a brass group, an early music group, a chorus, and others – all to inspire re dedication to Jack's unique vision.

Given that we intend this event to be free to the public we must raise major funds to cover the cost. Contributions are earnestly sought, as soon as possible, as they will determine what the program can be. If you could give $100, or less, or more if you can, to support this once in a lifetime event, please send a check made out to FMSNY and clearly marked for the Langstaff event, to Heather Wood (address on page 4). Further information from Jerry Epstein at (718) 429-3437. If you are a regular contributor to the Club, please do not replace any regular gift with this contribution. Please give what you can only if you can do so as a special gift for this unique event.

---Jerry Epstein

From the Editor

Summer is coming with exciting concerts and other singing events. This June newsletter has the summer festival listings and can be a great help to you in planning your musical summer. Peter Ostroushko, who will be playing June 2nd with Arkan, is one of our series concerts. The summer Sea Music Concerts, which are every Tuesday in June and July, start this month. Don't forget the Folk Open Sing, the Chantey Sing and the Sacred Harp Singing.

In addition, there will be a vocal production techniques workshop, the first of a series, this month as well.

We also appreciate your help with the newsletter mailings. Because of issues with our office space, the mailings and our board meetings, will be held at different locations. Be sure to check the newsletter for locations for the board meetings and the newsletter mailings.

Thank you to the volunteers who help to put out the newsletter each month and ensure that you get the word about what's going on in the club and at events throughout the city. They could always use more help. For the last newsletter thank you to: , Isabel Goldstein, Brenda Pena, Eileen Pentel, Anne Price, Marcus Tieman, and Don Wade who also delivered the pages from the printer. Won't you join us and help mail out the next newsletter on Wednesday, June 28? (See page 3 and note the location.)

Peter Ostroushko is one of the finest mandolin and fiddle players in acoustic music. His tours have taken him to clubs, performing arts centers, music festivals and theatres across North America and Europe, and he has earned an international reputation as a versatile, dazzling master of instrumentation and composition. He is a frequent guest on A Prairie Home Companion.

Peter plays a rich ethnic mix, at the heart of which is his Ukrainian heritage. His term for his gumbo of musical styles is "slüz düz," a phrase borrowed from his mother, meaning, roughly, "over the edge" or "off his rocker."

Arkan (Arkadiy Yushin), from Minsk, Belarus, is a professional recording and performance musician, composer, and guitar multistylist, as well as a private teacher of guitar, theory and advanced improvisational techniques.

PINEWOODS FOLK MUSIC WEEK JULY 22-29

Folk Music Week offers a wide range of activities to appeal to all musical tastes, interests and experiences. Advanced musicians can work intensively, amateurs are challenged and engaged and beginners are always made to feel welcome.

Traditional song and its interpretation is a particular strength this year—our staff members are foremost among those who have shaped and influenced our understanding of what folk song is and of its place in the societies in which it flourishes. We'll also focus on appropriate and effective use of instrumental accompaniment—for song as well as dance. And we'll have a lot of fun doing it all.

Folk Music Week is one of 11 weeklong programs run by
The Country Dance and Song Society
