Thank You!

To Neil & Kathy Cohen, for the Sing & Swim Party in Queens, which offered some welcome relief from the heat as we splashed in their pool between singing and eating. And to Jean Ritchie, and George & Jon Pickow, whose back yard hosted a great gathering of over 60 people, many of them new friends. The weather was kind, the potluck food scrumptious, the music wonderful. Among the highlights, Jean gave us several songs, including a simple but chilling version of "The Wife of Usher's Well," and Oscar Brand told a hilarious tale of adapting a folksong, "Days of '49," for a TV special.

And thanks, too, to all who came and brought goodies, played, sang, or simply listened and enjoyed. Here's to next year!

From the Editor

Hope you have had a wonderful summer and are looking forward to more music this Fall, Winter, and Spring. Our series concert for September will be Rum & Shrub, a fun group, (see inside for details), Keith Kendrick in a house concert, and our Folk Open Sing and Chantey Sing. There is also a Vocal Production Workshop which has limited space—don't delay in signing up. A very special event, not to be missed, is the Jack Langstaff Memorial Symposium and Celebration.

Don't forget to sign up for our Fall Weekend, which will be held at the Nevele Grand Resort. We will have great music, wonderful accommodations and good food. My son, Willie, just came back from a conference run by his summer job there. He said everything was great! I'm really looking forward to going. Their prices were very comparable to the other places we had been looking at, and which were not available anyway at that time. Also in October, the monthly Sea Music Concerts begin with the NexTradition.

Thank you to the volunteers who help to put out the newsletter each month and ensure that you get the word about what's going on in the club and at events throughout the city. They could always use more help. For the last newsletter thank you to: Herb Feuerlicht, Isabel Goldstein, Brenda Pena, Mariann Perseo, Anne Price, Ken Sevitsky, and Don Wade who delivered the pages from the printer. And a special thanks to Nancy Keness for the use of her office. Won't you join us and help mail out the next newsletter on Thursday, September 28? (See page 3.)

Nautical, Naughty, and Nice

Friday 15 September 2006, 7:30 p.m.

Series Concert at the Community Church

40 E. 35 St between Park & Madison, Manhattan.

Rum and Shrub Shantymen are a group of singers from Cornwall, with a wide reputation across England and Brittany for lively singing of shanties, sea songs and traditional folk songs. They have been singing together for many years and are equally at home on a stage, on a boat or quay, or in a bar. Listen up, join in, and enjoy their enthusiasm.

The name Rum and Shrub is taken from one of Cornwall's best kept secrets and their favourite "medicine" — Shrub being an alcoholic cordial reputed to have been enjoyed by smugglers to disguise the salty taste of their contraband, and rum being rum. It is taken 50:50 in careful quantities to ensure clarity of voice, — if not head!

The Folk Process

by Ruth Lipman

ALAN FRIEND's feature article on old-time musician, Paul Brown, appeared in the June issue of Banjo Newsletter. Paul's photo is on the cover along with other photos. A discography and tablature for a banjo tune are included in the article.

It looks as though ABE and GERT GERSHOWITZ's eight-year-old great-grandson, JARED LECHNER, is a budding author. Jared recently wrote a twelve-page "book" about his father, GREG LECHNER. It is organized in sections such as "sports," "cars," and "pets" that pertain to his dad and also includes illustrations and photographs. Jared put this together on the computer all by himself.

Congratulations and best wishes for happiness to MARNI SCHLESINGER, SHEILA EWALL's niece. Marni became engaged to be married on July 9th. Good luck to Sheila's nephew, EVAN SCHLESINGER, who recently started a new job. Sheila stepped into the July 4th weekend with folk dancing at the Fallsview Hotel. Then, in mid-July, while on an excursion to Fire Island, she ran into EILEEN PENTEL, DON WADE and WILLIE WADE-PENTEL. It's a small world.

And in the Belated Announcements Department: When MARK and DEBBY EDELMAN got married in 1998, they didn't get around to announcing it in our club's newsletter. So here is that information for anyone who didn't know. Belated best wishes to Debby and Mark. In November, 2005, Debby's daughter, SARAH, was admitted to SUNY at Geneseo, which was her first choice. Sarah, best of luck to you as you begin your journey through college.

Wanted By NY Pinewoods Folk Music Club!

Socialites? Sociologists? Social Workers?

Actually what our club wants are SOCIAL EVENT HOSTS! Those are members who are ready, willing, and able to host community sings, song circles, pub nights, singing parties, picnics, days out in the park, and all sorts of other fun events. These can be one shot affairs, they can be occasional events, or they can be ongoing events. Being a host requires a little bit of effort and a little bit of patience, and perhaps a little outlay of money (and perhaps not). But the rewards will be enormous, by which we mean the satisfaction which comes from the sharing of music and friendship.

If you have even the slightest inkling that you are up to the task of being a social event host, please contact us by e-mail at suffet@att.net or by phone at 1-718-786-1533. We will discuss the particulars, including the type of event, date, time, place, and what support you need from the club. We will then present your idea to the Executive Board for its approval, which is required for an event to carry club sponsorship. Once the Board approves, the event will be listed in the New York Pinewoods newsletter.

That's not so hard, is it? So who wants to step up first?

Fall Folk Music Weekend

October 20-22, 2006 at the

Nevele Grande Resort & Country Club/Fallsview

In Ellenville, NY (gourmet cuisine, fitness center and spa, tennis, boating, swimming, fishing, hiking, nearby wine trails, horseback riding, more)

With blues guitarist Mary Flower and many others

The Nevele Grande in Ellenville, NY, is only 90 minutes from New York City by car and Short Line bus transportation is available. It's in the heart of the Catskills, but it's not your grannie's Nevele. Bring your partners, friends, families.

Our Registrar will send you detailed directions and our Transportation Coordinator will try to find rides for those who need them. If you take the bus, we will provide shuttle service from the bus station to the hotel.

Got Kids?

We will arrange special programming for kids (for example, a "Petting Zoo" where kids [and adults!] can get their hands on various instruments). So bring the kids, grand-kids, and encourage families with kids to join us.

The weekend kicks off on Friday evening with dinner followed by a "Meet the Staff" and "Get to know each other" program. Saturday and Sunday, are filled with music and dance workshops, crafts, hiking, chats, and lots of opportunities for informal jamming and singing! Late Saturday afternoon is the "Camper Concert," where the applause is for you! Saturday evening there is a staff concert followed by dancing for all levels to our camper's pickup band. Late-night jamming and singing are encouraged. Or you can simply relax and enjoy the amenities the hotel has to offer (some with a separate fee payable directly to the hotel). Check out the website for all the activities at www.nevele.com. And don't forget the auction, to benefit the Scholarship Fund (see scholarship details in this newsletter).
