The trio's take on classic black string-band repertoire includes "Cotton-Eyed Joe," "Sugar in the Gourd," "Hell Among the Yearlings" and "Yellow Rose of Texas," a tune originating from a black minstrel show which is actually an ode to the singer's "sweetest girl of color a fella ever knew."

Something Trad, Something New, Something Ragtime, Something Blue. He bought a Guild D40 with paper route money, and played at the Hudson River Sloop festivals in Nyack, before the Clearwater was born and a clean river was only a dream in Pete Seeger's heart. Arthur played folk music, rock, old and new ballads, joined his High School Folk club and played in bars and coffee houses all around, including the Feenjon and Bitter End in the Village. Later his music took a back seat to college, marriage and children. Now it's time to share what he has cherished for so many years with a wider audience. Expect an eclectic mix of music from John Dowland, through John Barleycorn and Gordon Bok, to Chet Atkins and beyond.

Admission: $10.00 members, $13.00 general public Upper West Side location. Reservations required. Call (718) 549-1344 (after 11 AM)

From the Editor

The snow finally found us, but it may be gone by the time you get this newsletter. That should make it easier to get to all of our events this March. The Ebony Hillbillies is our series concert, and we have the Sea Music concert with the Johnson Girls and the NY Packet and a house concert with Arthur Sherry. We also have the Folk Open Sing, the Chantey Sing, and the Sacred Harp Sing. We look forward to seeing you at any and all of our events!

Thank you to the volunteers who help to put out the newsletter each month and ensure that you get the word about what's going on in the club and at events throughout the city. They could always use more help. For the last newsletter thank you to: Isabel Goldstein, Eileen Pentel, Anne Price, Marcus Tieman, and Don Wade who also delivered the pages from the printer. Won't you join us and help mail out the next newsletter on Thursday, March 29? (See above)

The Folk Process

by Ruth Lipman

WILLIE WADE-PENTEL is enjoying his sophomore year at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst. Meanwhile, his mom, EILEEN PENTEL has become a student, too; she is studying Yiddish at the Workmen's Circle.

HARRY BAYA got the job that he wanted last fall. He is employed, full time, as an instructional technologist, at Emory and Henry College. The icing on the cake is the short commute (15 minutes from Harry's home!) On one of his days off, Harry went to the Gaylax Fiddle Festival; DREW SMITH, SUSAN STERNGOLD, MIKE RESNICK and ERICA WEISS were there as well.

If you have news to share, please contact me at 372 Central Park West, #15B, New York, NY 10025; 212-663-6309.

Review -- The GRAMMIES

A subtitle for this review might be "JOAN BAEZ and THE DIXIE CHICKS; The Times They Are A-changing."

This was the 49th Grammy Awards show, and until this year my record has been perfect; never watched it before. This time around, I taped it, then waded through it, to reduce the pain. It always has lots of rap -- not my thing -- and the songs too often can be described as sappy, loud, silly, over-produced (and maybe a combination of these). Three hours plus, not to mention all the commercials (which frequently are more fun than some of the songs). Yes, I'm a biased reviewer.

I'll admit that there was an occasional good song. Tony Bennett and Stevie Wonder appeared near the beginning -- two class acts -- and then, suddenly, Joan Baez, as a presenter! She mentioned Woody Guthrie, recited a few lines from "This Land is Your Land," and then introduced The Dixie Chicks, who sang their wonderful, electrifying "I'm Not Ready to Make Nice." As you probably already know, they had four nominations that night, and won in all four categories. A real sweep. They became very familiar figures up there on the stage. Song of the Year; Record of the Year; Country-Western Album of the Year; Album of the Year. I didn't quite understand the difference between some of those, but I won't argue.

Yes, quite a reversal from the other year when a casual political remark produced boycotts, cancellations, and steamrollers crushing their CDs; their careers seemingly in a tailspin. I think "resilience" has found a new definition. And that expression, "Timing is everything," sure applies. THIS was the Grammy show to finally watch!

Wanted By NY Pinewoods Folk Music Club!

Socialites? Sociologists? Social Workers?

Actually what our club wants are SOCIAL EVENT HOSTS! Those are members who are ready, willing, and able to host community sings, song circles, pub nights, singing parties, picnics, days out in the park, and all sorts of other fun events. These can be one shot affairs, they can be occasional events, or they can be ongoing events. Being a host requires a little bit of effort and a little bit of patience, and perhaps a little outlay of money (and perhaps not). But the rewards will be enormous, by which we mean the satisfaction which comes from the sharing of music and friendship.

If you have even the slightest inkling that you are up to the task of being a social event host, please contact us by e-mail at suffet@att.net or by phone at 1-718-786-1533. We will discuss the particulars, including the type of event, date, time, place, and what support you need from the club. We will then present your idea to the Executive Board for its approval, which is required for an event to carry club sponsorship. Once the Board approves, the event will be listed in the New York Pinewoods newsletter.

That's not so hard, is it? So who wants to step up first?

--- Marilyn & Stephen Suffet, Social Co-Chairs
