DANNY SPOONER; Friday, June 29th; 7:30 PM ☺

Danny Spooner is about the best singer Australia has to offer in traditional song. Born in southern England, he went to sea (skipping school) at age 13, and was lucky enough to crew on a boat captained by the fine source singer Bob Roberts. Danny absorbed songs from all over, especially on the waterways around the East coast of Britain. He has lived in Australia now for 30 years and has picked up lots of songs, stories, history,

More about Danny Spooner (June 29 concert)

Danny Spooner's passion is the expression of British and Australian culture through folk music.

Born into a working-class family in the East End of London prior to World War 2, Danny Spooner grew up with the traditions, music and folklore of a typical Cockney family.

At 13 he left school and worked on a sailing barge which plied the Thames and the south coast of England. Under the instructive eye of Bob Roberts, Danny learned British songs and was enrolled in libraries along the coast to read their stories. He was apprenticed to the Thames as a Waterman and Lighterman, and after 6 years had earned his Freeman of the Thames.

Over the next 10 years he held various jobs including salvage tug and trawler skipper. This varied, almost nomadic life, has given Danny an all-too-rare real-life education in the ways of working people.

When Danny arrived in Australia in 1962, he realised that there was an audience ready, interested, and willing to appreciate these sorts of songs. He heard Declan Affley singing in the early folk scene in Sydney, and at the fabled Frank Traynors in Melbourne Martyn Wyndham-Read, Brian Mooney, David Lumsden, Trevor Lucas and Margret RoadKnight. This was the engine room of the folk revival in Australia, and made Danny want to learn those songs. "From Wendy Lowenstein and Gwenda Davey he understood the importance of the social context of the songs and proper attribution.

Thanks to a prodigious memory and a willingness to learn about his craft, Danny Spooner quickly developed into one of the best singers of British folksongs in Australia. Over the years he has augmented what he learned "on the job" with a vast repertoire spanning almost every part of the British tradition - as well as a respectable portion of the Australian folk heritage. He's been pleased to add American material learned from new friends - and even a Canadian-French whaling song.

Danny has performed in folk clubs all over Australia, New Zealand and in Britain on his visits home, and has appeared at every major folk festival in Australia, at which he has given a vast range of workshops on aspects of folk songs of Britain and Australia. Many of these presentations were recorded live by ABC national radio.

His passion is getting people singing, and he has inspired and encouraged many in developing their singing craft. Nothing gives him more pleasure at a festival than getting a good singing session going, "That's what folksong is about".

Long described as "a living national treasure", Danny Spooner can make traditional music seem new and make new songs seem old.

CD Reviews

by David Jones

At last I have a car with a CD player and can listen and re-listen to old favorites. Here are a couple of thumbnail sketches of CDs that I always enjoy.

Happy Landings, Marilyn Maltzer & Anne Price. Most of you will know this CD, it has been around for many years and is one of my all time favorites, a wonderful collection of songs beautifully sung. The harmonies are delicious and the accompaniments are well assisted by Toby Fagenson and Alice Backer. Many standout numbers, “La Laine des Moutons”, Jean Ritchie’s “The L & N Don’t Stop Here Anymore”, Tom Paxton’s “Hard Times are Here Again”, and many more great songs. Half the folk world may have recorded “Roseville Fair”, but none better than Anne Price. “What’s Your Mommas Name” Is a song I keep replaying. A lovely recording and a lovely memory of Marilyn.

The Truth For Certain. Larry Hanks and Mike Marker, Dandelion 102. I met Larry in the 1960s on the west coast but have never met his excellent singing and songwriting partner, Mike Marker. Larry is a west coast legend and he and Mike make a mighty duo. What you hear on this recording is what you would hear in concert, no studio tricks employed. Brilliant songs by Larry Penn, Malvina Reynolds, Mark Graham and Leadbelly’s Titanic are some of the offerings, while songs by Larry and Mike include “Raking Leaves” and “The Loggers Song”. “High and Lonesome” is an extraordinary piece of writing by Mark Graham and Mike gives a lesson on how to sing “The Glendy Burk,” nice and easy, just like the Mississippi river rolling along. Larry and Mike play six and twelve string guitars, banjo and Jews Harp. The great English singer, Martyn Wyndham Read, told me that this is one of his all time favorite CDs, and he has fine taste.
