Events Details

WOODY REDISCOVERED; Sunday, Sept. 30th, 4 to 6 PM

As of now, there are 2,563 songs in the Woody Guthrie Archives, and Woody recorded well over 300 of them. However, only about 30 are really well known today. In this musical workshop Anne Price, Steve Suflet, and special guest Hillel Arnold will introduce you to a few of Woody Guthrie's other 2,533 songs. Upper West Side Manhattan location near Broadway & W. 98th. Admission: FMSNY members $10, non-members $13, kids & full-time students $6. Seating is limited and event is already nearly sold out. For reservations and location, please call Steve at 718-786-1533.

FOLK OPEN SING; Wednesdays, Oct. 3rd ; and Nov. 7th; 7-10 pm

Join us on the first Wednesday of each month for an open sing. Bring your voice, instruments, friends, neighbors, and children. Drop by for a couple of songs or the whole evening. At the Ethical Culture Society, 53 Prospect Park West (basement), Brooklyn (near 2nd St.). Directions: F train to 7th Ave.; Q train to 7th Ave.; 2/3 train to Grand Army Plaza. Sunday, November 4 - TBA.

EVERY TONGUE UNDER THE SUN, Friday, October 12th, 8 PM© a Daniel Pearl World Music Days Concert

Come and join us for a wonderful evening of international songs with Joy Bennett, Jerry Epstein, Alan Friend, Chris Koldewey, Anne Price, Heather Wood and many others. Bring a song of your own to share in the second half of the concert. Sign up when you come.

This concert is part of the Daniel Pearl World Music Days, an annual worldwide network of concerts that uses the universal language of music to diminish hatred, respect differences, and reach out in global friendship. Daniel Pearl was an American journalist who was kidnapped and murdered by terrorists in Pakistan in 2002. He was also an accomplished classical violinist, country fiddler, and mandolin player who joined musical groups wherever he traveled. Daniel Pearl would have celebrated his 44th birthday on October 10th, and this concert honors him by carrying on his mission of celebrating our shared humanity through music. .

At the office of Organization of Staff Analysts, 220 E. 23rd Street New York., suite 707 (between 2nd and 3rd Ave's) Members Free. (On-street parking is available after 7pm.) General Admission $20; $12 for seniors/low income individuals. Full-time students under 23 admitted free. Advance Gen adm tickets on-line at www.folkconcert1.eventbrite.com. Info: 718-672-6399.

CHANTEY SING; Saturday, October 20th; 8 PM

Come to the Chantey Sing at South St Seaport. Bring instruments, voices and songs. Co-sponsored and hosted by the Seamen's Church Institute at 241 Water St NYC. Directions: A & C trains Broadway/Nassau St., and J, M, Z, 2, 3, 4, 5, Fulton St. Walk down Fulton St and make a left on Water St. A small donation requested. Info: 718-788-7563 or www.woodenshipsmusic.com/nychanty/nychanty.html.

FALL FOLK MUSIC WEEKEND; October 19-21

Bring the kiddies, bring the wife, come on out and have the time of your life..... it's the Fallsview Hotel. Again we have our Fall weekend at a full-service resort. Pools, tennis, health club and spa, are just a few of the highlights. The location is in Ellenville in the Upper Hudson River Valley only 90 minutes from NYC.

Of course the music is paramount, and there'll be designated rooms, just for us, for singing, and jamming and workshops. Our full schedule of workshops and concerts will make it hard to find time to use the amenities, but don't forget your swimsuit! Sign up now! Note the special kids rate and bring the whole family! See flyer in the centerfold for details.

SACRED HARP SINGING AT ST. BART'S; Sunday, Oct. 21st; 2:30pm

Co-sponsored and hosted by St. Bartholomew's Church in Manhattan, on the 3rd Sunday of each month Sept. thru June, 2:30 to 5pm, 109 East 50th St. We continue the colonial American tradition of four-part, unaccompanied gospel singing. Beginners welcome! Books available for loan or purchase. Contributions collected; free parking available. Food and fellowship following. Info: Gail Harper 212-750-8977.

ADAM HURT

Elementary clawhammer banjo workshop, Sat, Oct. 27th

House Concert in Brooklyn, Sat, Oct. 27th, 8 PM

Intermediate/advanced clawhammer banjo workshop, Sun, Oct. 28th

Adam Hurt is a remarkable old-time banjo player who has won or placed at countless banjo competitions including this year at Clifftop. He has also won several state fiddle championships. Adam began playing clawhammer banjo in 1995, an instrument he discovered in an elementary-school classroom in Saint Paul, Minnesota, thanks to a homeroom teacher who was actively involved with the Twin Cities' folk music scene. Following a brief obsession with the bluegrass mandolin, Adam quickly decided to fully concentrate his musical efforts on old-time music in general and the banjo and all that it could do in particular. Hear him in this special concert in Brooklyn Heights while he is in NYC from North Carolina. Alan Friend will be joining Adam on several selections doing vocals or playing other instruments. You must contact Alan Friend at 718-965-4074 to reserve a space because we expect to fill up rapidly. $12 members, $15 non-members

Elementary clawhammer banjo workshop in Park Slope, Brooklyn on Sat., Oct. 27: Fee for this 2 hour workshop is $30. You must register in advance. Please contact Alan Friend at alanfriend_music@mindspring.com or 718-965-4074 IMMEDIATELY to reserve your space. Students should be able to play the basic bum-ditty clawhammer stroke and possibly a simple tune or two in standard G tuning. The workshop will cover the drop thumb technique, double thumbing, hammering-on and perhaps a bit more depending on time constraints. There will be a combination of listening and playing as we learn a tune by ear in the traditional manner. Use of a recording device is recommended. .

Intermediate/advanced clawhammer workshop on Sunday, Oct, 28.

Space is still available for this 6 hour workshop. Contact Alan IMMEDIATELY to reserve a space, 718-965-4074.

GOSPEL & SACRED HARP SING; Sunday, October 28th; 3pm

Glorious music, great words (mostly serious, occasionally humorous). Come raise your voice and experience these rousing pieces, with a group of enthusiastic singers. Join us for singing gospel, plus songs from the Sacred Harp book. This is 4-part harmony sung from written music, so you should be able to carry a tune; sight-singing helpful but not required. Bring food for a potluck supper (host is supplying drinks).. At the home of Stu Shapiro, 86-15 Broadway, apt.14E, Elmhurst, Queens (718-592-8741). Subways: Take the "G" from Brooklyn or the "R" from Manhattan to Grand Ave, back end of train. Stu is 1 Block North of Queens Blvd on B'way. Look for tall building near subway exit. There is often weekend track work in Queens; call Transit Information or Stu for last minute changes! Other info: Isabel, 212-866-2029.

NEWSLETTER MAILING; Tuesday, October 30th; 7 PM

We need your help to mail out the next Newsletter. Join the important band of volunteers that sticks the stamps and labels and staples the pages to mail out this newsletter. At the home of Don Wade and Eileen Pentel, 35-41 72nd Street, Jackson Heights (Queens). Right near the "74 St" Station of the #7 line or the "Roosevelt-Ave-Jackson Heights" Station of the E,F,V, and R trains. For info. call 718-426-8555.

From the Editor

OCTOBER is a really busy and, of course, musical month. Our series concert is a unique combination of performers singing "Every Tongue Under the Sun," and an opportunity for you to bring a song in a different language. We are celebrating The Daniel Pearl World Music Days. (See the description for more details). We are also presenting Adam Hurt, a wonderful banjo player, in concert and there may be some spaces left for his workshops. Don't forget our Chantey Sing, Sacred Harp Sing and the Sea Music concert.

Our Fall Weekend will be at a resort, the Fallsview. There are still spaces. This is a great time to bring children, grandchildren—15 years and under will only cost $25—a great bargain if you ask me! With Roustabout—Chris Romaine, Susan Trammell, Bruce Hutton and Lars Hanslin--and with Erica Weiss and Lisa Null everyone will have a great time.

As many of you know, Abe Gershowitz recently passed away. There will be a memorial for him on Sunday, November 11, 2007. See the next newsletter for more details.

Thank you to the volunteers who help to put out the newsletter each month and ensure that you get the word about what's going on in the club and at events throughout the city. They could always use more help. For the last newsletter thank you to: Isabel Goldstein, Brenda Pena, Eileen Pentel, Anne Price, Marcus Tieman, and Don Wade. Won't you join us and help mail out the next newsletter on Tuesday, October 30? (See above.)

E-Mail?

Dear members: E mail is a great way for us to get in touch with you, and for you to get in touch with us. Many of you have given us your e-mail addresses, but many have not. If you would like to be on the club's e-mail address list, please send a message to nypinewood@aol.com. Also, if you think you gave us your e mail address but you haven't gotten any messages, maybe it was illegible or we got it wrong for some reason. If so, send it to us again. E-mail addresses of board members are also listed in this newsletter. Let us hear from you.

The Folk Process

by Ruth Lipman

Congratulations to TOBY FAGENSON and DON WADE. After 37 years of working, Toby retired in June. Toby and Jane celebrated with trips to London and the Berkshires. A trip to Amagansett is in the planning stages. Don Wade retired this year from his teaching position. Both Toby and Don are enjoying their free time immensely.

During the summer, SHEILA EWALL went to a folk dance weekend as well as on bus trips to Delaware, Connecticut and Pennsylvania. She especially enjoyed a ride on the old fashioned railroad cars. Her niece, MARNI, was graduated from Hofstra University Law School in May and was married in August. Best wishes to Marni.

As for yours truly, during the summer I went to a one-week French language immersion course at the University of Quebec at Trois Rivieres which I enjoyed.

If you have news to share, please contact me at 372 Central Park West, #15B, New York, NY 10025; 212-663-6309.

Help!

Can you help spread the word about our concerts? If you go to jams, sings, concerts, your office, anywhere (even your apartment laundry room) that you could put out flyers, help us by getting a supply of flyers to put out. Contact Don Wade, <donwade@donwade.us>, 718-426-8555 and let us know how many to send you!

Thanks

Eisteddfod-NY 2007 has needs!

Our great festival of traditional music comes around for its fourth incarnation in the Big Apple this November 16-18. Our members have been helpful in many ways, and as always we appeal on several fronts.

Housing: We need members to volunteer beds to house performers.

Housing in Queens would be especially desirable, but any members who can be helpful would be greatly appreciated. If you can house somebody, we provide you free admission to the festival. Beds are needed for Friday and Saturday night, and in some cases for Sunday night also. You do not need to provide meals. If you have a sofa bed or spare room and can help, call Rosalie Friend 718- 965-4074 as soon as you can.

Volunteers: The festival requires a large crew of capable, friendly, organized people to make the many jobs at the festival actually happen. Volunteering for 6 hours over the course of the weekend also gets you free admission. Jobs come in 57 varieties. We have an ongoing crew, but there are some spaces we very much need to fill. If you would like to know more, please call Rosalie Friend, 718- 965-4074 . Both of these contributions will get you an invite to the after festival party. Ain't that a deal?

Contributions: It will come as no surprise that this great festival can only continue if our members and friends will support it financially as well. Contributions last year were exceptional and have kept us afloat. So please consider what you can spare to support the festival, and contact Heather Wood 212-957-8386 about sending a check.

Advertising and Vendors: We need advertisements in the program book, contact Heather Wood 212-957-8386. And vendors to sell crafts or food in the Folk Marketplace, call Rosalie Friend, 718- 965-4074. Is there anyone who would be willing to organize the making and sale of baked goods as a benefit for the club at the festival? Call Rosalie Friend, 718- 965-4074

And COME: If the people don't come, there won't be any festival and the performers will get lonely. So please put it on your calendar, November 16-18, and invite everyone you know. Seriously, our greatest outreach to new people is the people who already know what a great time it will be. So one of the best things you can do for the festival and the Club is to help bring in people who don't know it is happening but would love it if they did. You all know some of those, right? If you would us to send you some flyers to put up or give out, please call Don Wade, 718-426-8555.

By mail: Send this form with a Stamped, Self-Addressed Envelope and check, made payable to FMSNY, to: Heather Wood, 444 W. 54 St, #7, New York, NY 10019; (212) 957-8386; <info@eisteddfod-ny.org>

HILLY KRISTAL 1932-2007

It is with great sadness that I learned about the passing of Hilly Kristal. He died on August 28th at the age of 75. The cause of death was lung cancer.

A former singer and songwriter, Hilly later became the manager of the Village Vanguard, the world famous jazz club in New York's Greenwich Village. In 1973, he started his own club on the Bowery at the foot of Bleecker Street in the East Village. Originally, he envisioned it would feature country, blue grass, and blues, so he called the place CBGB, the initials of those genres. Many people know that CBGB, later called CBGB/Omfug, soon became the epicenter of the New Wave explosion. Among the artists who got their first big break at CBGB/Omfug were the Ramones, Patti Smith, Blondie, and the Talking Heads.

Fewer people, however, realize that Hilly also operated another club, CB's 313 Gallery, which continued to feature acoustic music, including folk music of various kinds. It was located right next door to CBGB/Omfug, and over the years it presented many members of the New York Pinewoods Folk Music Club, especially in its Woody Guthrie Birthday Bash and its Midwinter Hoot, both of which I had the honor of producing. Among those club members were Jane Babits, Toby Fagenson, Jessica Feinbloom, Richard Fried, David Kleiman, Joel Landy, Mark Maniak, Anne Price, Erica Smith, Carlos Vazquez, and Frank Woerner, as well as yours truly. Please forgive me if I left anyone out.

Beyond being a club owner, Hilly Kristal was a mensch.

Yes, he made a decent living from his clubs, but he never became fantastically wealthy from them. Maybe it's because he treated both the artists and the audiences decently. For the audiences, cover charges were kept low, drinks were reasonably priced, and no one was forced to make a minimum purchase. For the artists, they got to keep 85 or 90 percent of the gate after the house took a small amount off the top, usually $25 or $50, to pay the sound person. That's a better split than most commercial venues offer.

CBGB/Omfug and CB's 313 Gallery closed in 2006 after Hilly's lease expired and the landlord reclaimed the space. New York City and the world are both poorer for their absence. Now they are poorer yet for the loss of Hilly Kristal. May he rest in peace.
