Traditional Singing Workshop

Saturday and Sunday, May 3-4, 2008--Advance Registration Required

Jerry Epstein will give an intensive 2-day workshop for singers at all levels, in every aspect of the singing of folk songs covering using the voice with freedom and power, holding pitch, and stylistic aspects that make a song memorable. Jerry has been leading these workshops for more than 30 years in the northeastern U.S., in England, Scotland, and Australia.

Registrants should be able to carry a tune and should have a few songs to work on. The sessions are informal, individualized, and supportive. Each participant will work on a song in each of the four sessions. Other attendees give their immediate reactions, enabling the participant to remove obstacles to the most immediate and effective delivery, the most natural sound, and the best narrative

The sessions will be morning and afternoon of each day. The location is the upper West side of Manhattan. Full weekend registration is $75 for FMSNY members, $85 non-members. Registration for one day is possible only on a space-available basis. For questions, call Jerry at (718) 429-3437. Register in advance by sending your phone number, email address and a check made out to 'FMSNY' to Alan Friend, Education Chair, 440 Fifth Street, (NOT Avenue), Brooklyn, NY 11215. Other questions: Alan's phone is 718-965-4074.

From the Editor

April is here with a plethora of musical events. Our series concert will have “A Little of What You Fancy”—you can even dress up if you want. Check the flyer and the blurb. It will be a blast and a way to finally shake off the winter doldrums. In addition we have house concerts—Dean Windemuller, and Lori Holland. Don’t forget the Sea Music concerts, the Chantey sing and the Gospel and Sacred Harp and Sacred Harp sings. Join us at the Yippie Museum.

Another workshop is coming up in May—Traditional Singing workshop. Space is very limited so sign up quick. In addition, our Spring Weekend is open for registration. It will be exciting and fun—so register starting now! See flyer in centerfold. Also, we now have an arrangement with the Folk Project for the weekends. Their members can attend our weekend at member’s rates and we can attend their weekends at their member’s rates (see page 17).

Thank you to the folks who mailed out the newsletter. They could always use more help. The following volunteers showed up at the March mailing but had to stop working when it was discovered that the printer had accidentally reprinted the February Issue: Edward Coyle, Maddy de Leon, Isabel Goldstein, MaryJane Heyer, Brenda Pena, Eileen Pentel, Anne Price, and Marcus Tieman who was on his way to the mailing but turned back when he learned it was cancelled. When the March issue was printed the volunteers who put it together were Alan Friend, Rosalie Friend, Eileen Pentel, Steve Suffer, and Don Wade. Won’t you join us and help mail out the next newsletter on April 29? (See page 4.)

CALLING ALL PERFORMERS

Make Music, NY will again take place on Saturday, June 21, 2008. This is a citywide event where all the nooks and crannies of New York City will be full of people making music. This year the Folk Music Society will participate. We will have 4 sites on Broadway in Manhattan from 4 PM to 6 PM followed by a singing party from 6 PM to 9 PM. We have not yet selected the exact locations on Broadway.

For the slots from 4 PM to 6 PM, we will be selecting musicians for either a ½ hour or 1 hour slot. Spaces are limited Please send your application to Eileen Pentel, 35-41 72nd Street, Jackson Heights, NY 11372. We are looking specifically for individuals or groups who will sing/play participatory songs, i.e., chorus songs, chanteys, etc. Remember that this will take place on the street, which can be very noisy and busy, so quiet songs might be difficult. There will be no amplification.

Individual performers can always contact Make Music directly and arrange their own schedules. Performers can of course do more than one thing. As a service, we will list all club members who are not part of the “official FMSNY sites” and where they will be in our June newsletter. To see learn more about the day in general, you can check their website at www.makemusicny.org

You are invited to attend
The Folk Project
Backstage Festival
May 9, 10, 11

Featuring Cheryl Wheeler, Bob Franke, Straight Drive.
Caller: Peter Blue Dance Band: The Avant Gardeners

In the largest environmental education camp in NJ with a 110 acre lake. Spend a May weekend in the Kittattinny Mountains, near the Delaware Water Gap

It's called the Backstage Festival to describe an intimate festival experience. Concert seating is within 50 feet of the performers – leave your binoculars home. Performers are on site full time (Cheryl Wheeler Saturday all day). You can meet, eat with, (maybe) jam with, the performers – no golf carts whizzing by. All events are inside, but there's a wide porch to hang out on, and acres of open space. And the space stays open – attendance is limited to 250 including staff. To see what it's like, check the web site for prize-winning photos of our Fall 2007 Festival.

There will be 3 concerts, 5 dances, and more than 30 workshops. We have a tradition of highlighting our own members. FP performers are Peter Fischman and Deb O'Hanlon, Ken Galipeau, Sonas, Frank (Sole) and Hank (Nerenberg). Workshops are participatory, and include Songwriting with Bob Franke, Magic of the Moment with Cheryl Wheeler, instrument-specific techniques with Straight Drive and others, English dance, contra dance quirks, gospel, a host of outdoor activities with the camp staff, children's activities, nature activities, and more. And you can just "hang out" – read a good book, check out the lake, jam, take a walk, do something that feels good, whatever that is, all weekend.

NY Pinewoods/Folk Music Society of New York members can register at Folk Project member rates – a $20.00 discount.

For more information on The Folk Project Backstage Festival including performer details, a complete schedule, brochure, registration forms, fees, day passes, and discounts, check out our website at <http://festival.folkproject.org>.

You can register online, download the registration form, or contact Registrar John Sarney by mail for information – send a self-addressed stamped envelope to FPF Registrar, 62 Harrison Ave., Montclair, NJ 07042. By phone – (973) 509- 1014.
