Housetop; Friday, March 13th, 7:30 pm

Housetop is a harmony singin', swingin' string band quartet based in Southern Vermont and is here in New York City for a special appearance. They perform a lively, quirky program of swingy, bluesy, old time American music. Much of Housetop's repertoire is from the 30s and 40s - a high point of American song writing as performed at the time by stars like the Ink Spots, The Boswell Sisters, Fats Waller, and Fred Astaire. It was a time of great musical craftiness: close harmonies and clever, concise lyrics. It's also the music with which entertainers strove to sing and dance the people's cares away, and there's an undertone of hard times, treading the line between sincerity and satire. In the irreverent spirit of Vaudeville, Housetop makes these songs their own, along with whatever else scratches their itch, including jug band tunes, songs penned by Bob Wills, Dan Hicks, the Roches, and their own originals. They'll round out the program with hot instrumentals: Peter and Erica set the groove for Anna and Naomi's wild renditions of raggy fiddle tunes and little-big-band breaks.

The group consists of Naomi Morse (vocals, fiddle and mandolin), Erica Morse (vocals and upright bass), Anna Patton (vocals and clarinet), and Peter Siegel (vocals, guitar and mandolin). Naomi Morse is an expressive soprano and a fiery, lyrical fiddler whose rhythmic Vermont style sparks with French Canadian and southern old-time influences. Erica Morse is an expert singer, rendering jazzy harmonies with her rich, clear tone. Drawing on a musical background of intensive study of the viola de gamba and cello, these days she can often be seen thumping out a lovely big fat tone on the upright bass. Anna Patton is a third generation singer, musician and arranger of jazz vocal harmonies. An accomplished, versatile clarinetist, Anna tours regularly, delighting audiences with her command of numerous genres, her soulful style and her stunning musicianship. Peter Siegel is a mainstay of the traditional dance scene of the Pioneer Valley, as well as a composer and nationally-known singer-songwriter. His unique brand of “space age vaudeville” features hip-hop, finger style blues, fiddle tunes from Ireland, Quebec, New England, Appalachia, swing, funk, and country songs with lots of yodeling.

At the West Side Arts Coalition, Broadway Mall Center Island at 96th and Broadway

Brian Peters; Sunday, March 15th, 2 pm

Brian Peters blends his compelling voice with his other instruments—guitar, Anglo concertina & melodeon. He is a master of all these instruments. While he is internationally known for his performance of traditional English ballads, he is equally wonderful with instrumental dance tunes, ragtime & blues. He gives homage to modern composers, such as Richard Thompson, Leon Rosselson & Robin Williamson. His own compositions are also well worth the hearing. His renditions of British Music Hall songs are entertaining, as well. His act bristles with energy & wit. Accompanying Brian will be Jeff Davis, well known New England traditional folksinger.

This will be Brian’s only appearance in the New York metropolitan area during his tour. This concert is being run by the Borderline Folk Music Club and co-sponsored by the Pinewoods Folk Music Club. Reservations are recommended e-mail to solz1@optonline.net or call Sol Zeller at (845) 354-4586. Bring a cold pot luck dessert to share with 4 people

Tony Saletan; Songs from the 1948 Henry Wallace Campaign
Sunday, March 29th, 2:00 pm ☺

Come hear Tony Saletan present songs from the most musical presidential campaign in U.S. history. In 1948 when Henry Wallace ran for President on the Progressive party ticket, many outstanding artists joined his cause: Woody Guthrie, Pete Seeger, Paul Robeson, Alan Lomax, Malvina Reynolds (Little Boxes), E. Y. Harburg (Somewhere Over the Rainbow) and Harold Rome (Fanny) were among those who wrote, performed, and led songs supporting the Progressive Party. # From the Editor

Eileen Pentel

March is going to be a very busy month for us with many exciting events. Our series concert will be by Tony Saletan, who will present a program of songs from the 1948 Henry Wallace campaign. Note that it will be on a Sunday afternoon on March 29th at the same place where our conference/concert—the North American Urban Folk Music of 1940-1950—will be. Tony, who is coming in from the state of Washington, will be taking part in the conference. We therefore have this unique opportunity to see his special program. The conference and Tony's program will both be at the (LREI-Little Red Elizabeth Irwin High School)—see flyers on pages 7 & 8 for details.

The Magnolia Sisters were originally scheduled to come to us on March 13th, but were unable to make it. Hopefully, we will have them come another time. However, we are fortunate to have a swinging group, Husetop, perform for us in a new location at the Westside Arts Coalition at the Broadway Mall center island at West 96th Street. It will be in the format of a house concert or really, Folk on Broadway! I know that you will have a grand time. Space is limited so reserve early.

In addition, we have the Sea Music Concert with Joe Stead (in a new location—the main Seaport Museum building on Fulton Street), Brian Peters Concert in Rockland County, the folk open sing, the Chantey Sing, and the Sacred Harp sing. Don't forget our exciting Board meeting and newsletter mailings!

Thank you to the folks who mailed out the newsletter. They could always use more help. The following volunteers worked at the last mailing: Edward Coyne, Isabel Goldstein, Maryjane Heyer, Fran Levine, Eileen Pentel, Marcus Tieman, and Don Wade. Won't you join us and help mail out the next newsletter on Tuesday, March 31? (See page 4.)

Can you help spread the word about our concerts? ## Volunteer Coordinator Needed

The Club has need for someone who would like to provide real help, but does not wish to join the Board or attend meetings. From time to time, we need to call on volunteers for things like helping at a large concert, or helping with a special mailing, or help transporting something or someone. We need someone who will maintain a list of potential volunteers, ask people at Club events if they would be willing to have their names on a list to be called occasionally, and be the person Board members can call when we need some volunteers. The Coordinator's job will be then to call people on the volunteer list to try to put together a crew to get the needed work done. The job is not demanding or time consuming, but would be a major help to the continued running of the Club. If you have a reasonable amount of organization, a desire to help the Club, but don't wish to get centrally involved, this might be an ideal job for you. If you are willing to consider this, call Jerry Epstein for further information at (718) 429-3437. You should probably have a NYC telephone number.

Outreach via the Internet

There are a lot of websites that offer great publicity resources for the Society and its events.

We need volunteers to take responsibility for making sure our information gets listed correctly and updated in a timely manner. We'd like to spread the load, so each person is responsible for only one site. Maybe two.

If you are interested, please contact Don Wade, donwade@donwade.us.

Scholarships for CDSS Folk Music Week at Pinewoods Camp

Longtime club member Suzanne Szasz Shorr left the society a sum of money to be used for scholarships to Folk Music Week at Pinewoods Camp in Massachusetts, this year July 25 – August 1. The full cost is $855.

We are offering $200 scholarships for this event, with the possibility of a matching grant from CDSS. Their criteria: "choose from among your up-and-coming leaders, musicians, clallers, or administrators someone who you feel will be enriched by the experience, who will put into action the information they learn at our programs, and who has a commitment to your group and is interested in helping it."

If you are interested, please write to Marilyn Suffet, 41-05 47th St., Sunnyside NY 11104, ssuffet@nyc.rr.com. The deadline is 28 March 2009. The board will choose our applicant(s) and submit the name to CDSS. Note: we cannot guarantee that our nominee(s) will receive the CDSS matching scholarship.

The New York Music Index and Archive (NYMIA)

NYMIA is a free online database providing information and access to all aspects of the music industry in New York State. They have thousands of contacts in the database right now: arts organizations, granting agencies, record labels and repair shops, venues and artists, legal aid, rights organizations, and even health care. Unlike any other online directory, the NYMIA delivers information collected from across the entire state of New York on a full range of music related goods and services, all provided without any advertising. The goal of the NYMIA is to facilitate the everyday business of music-making through contacts and links. In this way anyone can learn about working artists, available grants, upcoming festivals, appropriate venues, instrument repair, aggregators, record companies, publishers, sales outlets - any and all music related goods and services. But to make sure the NYMIA is always up-to-date and relevant they need the participation of everyone in the music business statewide. To get a better idea of what it is about, please visit nymia.org
