From the Editor

Eileen Pentel

April will, I hope, truly bring Spring weather. As I write this, it is snowing, raining and cold. (sigh). At least we have music to keep us warm and moving. This month, Brian Peters will also be performing, and there is a new Community Sing/Sea Music Concert starting as well. Also we will have the Irish Traditional Music Sessions, the Old-Time Instrumental Jams, the Folk Open Sing, and the Shanty Sing. In addition, don't forget to check out the Brooklyn Folk Festival!

Especially, remember to register for our Spring Weekend with John Kirk and Trish Miller, Danny Spooner, and Joy Bennett and Chris Koldeway. It is never too early to register!

Special thanks go to Isabel Goldstein who has organized these mailings for many years. It is Isabel who has coordinated our mailings and has ensured that you received your newsletter in a timely fashion. She has decided not to continue. Thank you again Isabel.

Our newsletter mailings always welcome people to come and help out. Thank you to the volunteers last month: Isabel Goldstein, Eileen Pentel, Marcus Tieman, and Don Wade. Without our hard workers the newsletter would not get sent out. Won't you join us at the next mailing on Tuesday, April 30th? (See above.)

Weekends - Why, What, Where, When, and Who

Why - we hold our three residential weekends (Winter, Spring, Fall) to give us an opportunity to play and sing in company, to hear other performers, to learn, to relax, and to generally have fun hanging out with like-minded people in a friendly community.

What - Winter Weekend is unstructured. Folks just get together to jam and sing. Spring and Fall Weekends have booked performers with concerts and a schedule of workshops (teaching, participatory, mini-concerts, etc.). And of course the Camper Concerts, where anyone can sign up to perform.

Where - For some years now, we've been at the Hudson Valley Resort and Spa, which provides comfortable rooms, friendly service, good food, great hiking country, and a pool, spa, and exercise facilities.

When - Winter is in February, Spring is over Memorial Day weekend, Fall is usually in early November.

Who - We invite performers who are skilled proponents of traditional music of any and all flavors. But the most important ingredient in our weekends is YOU - whether you are a player, a singer, or an audience participant. We hope that everyone who attends will feel that they have contributed something, learned something, and had a good time among friends old and new.
