Danny Spooner; Tuesday, June 18th; 6pm

Danny Spooner is about the best singer Australia has to offer in traditional song. Born in southern England, he went to sea (skipping school) at age 13, and was lucky enough to crew on a boat captained by the fine source singer Bob Roberts. Danny absorbed songs from all over, from the waterways around the East coast of Britain to Australia where he has now lived for 30 years and has picked up lots of songs, stories, history, humor. He plays a mean concertina and sings with power and style. Co-sponsored with and at the John Street Church, 44 John St. (east of Broadway and one block south of and parallel to Fulton). Info: 212-957-8386. Donation, $10 or more, pay at the door.

Concert; Thursday, June 20th; 8pm

In 2014, the Museum of the City of NY will present Folk City: New York and the American Folk Revival, a special exhibition that will explore New York City's crucial role in fueling the nationwide folk music revival in the late 1950s and early 1960s. On Thursday June 20th, the Museum will host a benefit concert and we are pleased to be an associated organization. See details on page 6.

Make Music NY: Friday, June 21st; 4-6pm Picnic and Sing!

The Folk Music Society of NY will be at the Great Hill in Central Park from 4 PM to 6 PM. The Great Hill is located between 103rd Street and 107th street and you enter from Central Park West. As the name says it is up a hill: you can enter at 103rd Street for a slight walk with about 12 stairs. If you enter from 106th street, there are two choices. The shortest way is to go up the 75 stairs, or you can head north. There are no stairs, but it is still uphill and a long way around.

You are also invited to join in a sing along which will start at about 4:00 PM. Bring your voices, instruments and join in the fun. You can also just come and listen, although we hope you can't help but join in. Bring a chair or a blanket and a picnic dinner. Fun will be had by all.

There are bathrooms close by. There is no shelter, so if there is rain, we will cancel. If you are not sure about the weather, you can call 718-672-6399 and check in with us.

Newsletter Mailing: Tuesday, July 2nd; 7pm

We need your help to mail out the next Newsletter. Join the important band of volunteers that sticks the stamps and labels, and seals the pages to mail out this newsletter. At the home of Don Wade and Eileen Pentel, 35-41 72nd Street, Jackson Heights (Queens). Right near the "74 St" Station of the #7 line or the "Roosevelt Ave-Jackson Heights" Station of the E, F and R trains. (Cat in residence.) Info: 718-672-6399.

June is here already and we are looking forward to warm weather and a fun summer. Join us for Make Music. We will be in Central Park again. Danny Spooner will be performing at the John Street Church, and our usual events—the Irish Traditional Music Sessions, the Folk Open Sing, the Old-Time Instrumental Jam and the Shanty Sing will give us plenty of time to listen to and participate in music making! There is also a special event that we are co-sponsoring with the Museum of the City of New York celebrating Folk City and the American Folk Revival. Pete Seeger, Peter Yarrow, Josh White, Jr and many others are on the program. See the flyer for more information.

The Folk Music Society of New York, AKA Pinewoods Folk Music Club has been around for about 40 years, and we have many tapes and documents. With the help of Janice Quinter, they are now at the Library of Congress. (See article and photo). Thank you Janice for suggesting this and working so hard on this project.

This issue also has the Summer Festival listings, Thanks again to John Mazza. You might want to save this issue.

Thank you to the volunteers last month: Rob Crowley, Betsy Meyer, Fran Levine, Louise Luger, Eileen Pentel, Marilyn Suffet, Steve Suffet, Marcus Tieman, and Don Wade. Without our hard workers the newsletter would not get sent out. Won't you join us at the next mailing on Tuesday, July 2nd (see above)?

The Folk Process

by Ruth Lipman

Board member Marilyn Suffet recently returned from visiting her sister and brother-in-law in Israel. She is happy to report that all the damage done to their home and businesses from the Carmel Forest fire in December 2010 has been repaired and life is back to “normal.” Marilyn wants to thank members of the New York Pinewoods Folk Music Club again for their support and generous contributions.

Ann Green, who has been studying at “Sundays at J.A.S.A.” for ten years, is currently taking two film classes and a short story class there and plans to register again in the fall. She is also involved in a book group that meets in her apartment building.

Jane Babits’ and Toby Fagenson’s niece, Nicole Carter, was graduated from Harvard University in May. Jane and Toby attended the graduation ceremony and had a wonderful time. While in Cambridge, they enjoyed a visit to Passin’s, a well-known folk music club.

Gert Gershowitz now has seven great grandsons. The youngest, Zachary, was born in December 2012. His parents, Ken and Elissa (Gert’s granddaughter) and brother Joshua are very excited. The oldest great grandson, Jared, is finishing his first year of high school. His brother, Jacob, will have his Bar Mitzvah on August 24th. Jared and Jacob’s parents are Gregg and Arlene (Gert’s granddaughter). Gert says that she is doing well in her new home (in Maryland) but misses her friends in New York. Gert, we miss you too.

If you have news to share, please contact me at 372 Central Park West, #15B, New York, NY 10025; 212-663-6309; ruthlipman (at) msn.com.

Janice Quinter, Pinewoods member and archivist, visited the American Folklife Center at the Library of Congress in April to formalize the donation of forty years of Pinewoods material which includes audiotapes of concerts, events recorded by Don Wade, photographs of performers, newsletters and flyers, and reports of special conferences. The archivist, Valda Morris, will be organizing this large, important collection that will literally give voice to the performers for posterity.

CD Review
"DOWNSIZED" -- The Short Sisters;
Black Socks Press #30

It's always a pleasure to attend a concert by this cheery, talented trio --Fay Baird, Kate Seeger, and Kim Wallach -- and it shines through on this, their latest recording. The 16 numbers of this one hour album can't encompass their wide ranging repertoire, but it will give you a taste -- traditional and new songs, rounds, ballads, musical curiosities, some funny, some moving, a capella and accompanied, and terrific harmony.

There's a great rendition of the Berryman's modern classic, "Why Am I Painting the Living Room;" the exhilarating "Goin' Down to Tampa;" the touching "When Did Those Promises Turn into Lies?"; a toe-tapping labor ditty, "Twenty-Four Seven;" "Lazarus," a solid, traditional song; the "Vikings", plaintively musing about the modern world; Pete Sutherland's "Shacks and Chalets," a thoughtful song about inequality; "The Piper's Refrain," a ghost story; and one about the death of FDR and his place in history.

Kim also writes fine songs, and included here is her nostalgic "Home in Old New Jersey;" her funny excursion into economics, "Average Your Income;" and her excellent round, "Fire and Ice," using powerful words by Robert Frost.

Also included is a great round by Ann Downey (of The Finest Kind group), "Upon Finding Just One," about the 'earworm' malady, when a tune is trapped inside your brain, repeating endlessly. There are other numbers, with the final song being the irresistible and beautiful "It's a Pleasure to Know You," about 'sharing the road awhile' as you travel through life, with its ups and down, and those who share your journey.

Their website, shortsisters.com, has additional info, including their earlier recordings and videos of them in performance. To get this new CD, send $15 to "Kim Wallach", 83 Valley St, Keene NH 03431. You'll be glad you did.
