From the Editor

Eileen Pentel

The Holidays are upon us. We wish you good cheer, good times, good health, and much music. There are many musical events this month to share with each other. One of our highlights is a Birthday Party for ourselves. FMSNY is 50 years old. Amazing! There will be lots of singing and jamming. So bring your voices and, you jammers, bring your instruments!! In addition, there will be our usual events—the Folk Open Sing, the Chantey & Folk Music Session. The Shanty Sing, the Irish Traditional Music Sessions, and the Sunnyside Singers Club. We also go to the Regal Heights Rehabilitation and Health Care Center in Jackson Heights to bring musical cheer to the residents.

This is the month that elections are held for the Board of Directors. Members will be receiving a ballot. It is important to vote, and we ask that you take a few minutes to mail in your ballots. It is also a way to let the board members know that you appreciate their hard work to keep the club going.

Thank you to the intrepid Newsletter volunteers who make sure that you get your newsletter on time—Fran Levine, Betsy Mayer, Steve and Marilyn Suffet, Howard Passel, and Eileen Pentel last month. All are welcome to our mailings! Join us on Monday, December 28, see page 3.

Kidney Donation Needed

A long-time club member needs a kidney transplant. If you might be willing, or know someone who might be willing to donate, please contact Heather Wood, 646-628-4604, [hwood50\[at\]aol.com](mailto:hwood50[at]aol.com).

Snug Harbor Shanty Video

Once a month, a multi-generational group of musicians get together at The Noble Maritime Collection at Snug Harbor Cultural Center and Botanic Garden in Staten Island and sing traditional sea shanties and maritime folk music with audiences of all ages. The William Main Doerflinger Memorial Sea Shanty Sessions, co-sponsored by The Folk Music Society of New York, Inc., is a rare and beautiful gem of authenticity, artfully and honestly keeping alive an important oral tradition so integral to the very creation of New York City. They are preserving a rich history that can't be found in any textbook, and filmmakers Gabriel Baron and Leia Grossman are making them the subject of a short documentary to help spread the word.

The filmmakers' hope is that by capturing the personal story of the singing group in a short documentary, they can help magnify the group's efforts to bring historical stories alive and rejuvenate all who participate in the monthly "community sings."

The Folk Music Society of New York, Inc. is supporting this project's post-production with a donation. The filmmakers are asking for individual member support as well, to help complete this documentary. For the address to mail your donation or for information about credit card payments, please contact the film's producer, Leia Grossman, at [seashantydoc\[at\]gmail.com](mailto:seashantydoc[at]gmail.com). You can also visit www.facebook.com/seashantiesdoc to view short teaser videos of the project.

Sending us a check?

Please be sure to make it out to our official corporate name: Folk Music Society of New York, Inc, or just FMSNY. The bank doesn't like checks made out to Pinewoods. Thanks.

The Folk Process

by Ruth Lipman

Bob Witte says hello from Waldoboro, Maine. Last winter was a hard one, over five feet of snow plus rain and windstorms. (We hope this winter will be better). He is clearing out masses of stuff from the accumulation of the last 15 years. He has piles of books: some highly esoteric works of Japanese art, a batch of Oz books and a book illustrated by N.C. Wyeth. Does anyone know a reputable bookseller who is interested in such items and lots more??? Let him know (or contact Eileen at 718-672-6399 and she will pass on the information to Bob). He loves the deer, the crows, woodpecker, wildflowers and the single rabbit around his home. He has been able to get to an Andy Cohen concert with Katherine Rhoda also playing the dolceola.

Best wishes to everyone for a wonderful holiday season and for a healthy, peaceful 2016. For an easy to fulfill new year's resolution, please consider contributing an item to this column. Thanks. Contact me at 372 Central Park West, #15B, New York, NY 10025. 212-663-6309; ruthlipman[at]msn.com
