Sean-Nós Singing workshop: Saturday, Feb 22nd; 3:30pm

Sean-Nós is Irish for Old-Style. Sean-Nós songs are by definition pieces of ancient Irish music passed on through the ages from parent to child, and Clare Horgan is an acknowledged master of the genre. The melodies, stories, and words often preceded literacy, musical or otherwise. And yet they have survived, and their value lies in their beauty of tone, timbre, rhythm, melody and implied harmony as well as inimitable ornamentation and the stories which serve as a time-capsule into a life that is disappearing quickly. The nostalgic themes of love of place, romantic love, political upheaval, and celebrations of sporting events from hunting and rowing to fishing and football games, to poaching, dancing, making music, and making potato cakes, form the fabric of Irish rural life then, and to a lesser extent, now. This two-hour workshop will begin with Clare Horgan introducing songs from each of the five Irish speaking areas of Ireland in both Irish and English. Two of these songs will be then be chosen as the focus for the workshop, which will be learned and sung together, with copies of words and some background information supplied. All levels and ages welcome. No prior knowledge of Irish is required. At Community Church of New York, 40 East 35th Street (lower level), New York NY 10016. Cosponsored by Folk Music Society of New York. $35 fee payable on-site. Reservations required. For reservations and information please e-mail Clare Horgan, clarniargain(at)icloud.com, or call her at 1-347-968-3059.

From the Editor

Eileen Pentel

We have exciting musical events in February. Our usual happenings include the Irish Traditional Music sessions, the Sunnyside Singers Club, the Folk Open Sing, and the Shanty Sing. In addition there is a Maritime & Folk Song Session. As a special treat, there is a Sean-Nos, (Irish for Old Style) singing workshop. Reservations are required. The beginning of March brings us the Pete Seeger Memorial Sing and a concert with Moonfruits.

Thank you to everyone who voted for the Board. Everyone on the ballot was re-elected. We will be meeting to vote on officers. The by-laws say that once the Board is elected, Board members select the officers.

Folk Music back on WBAI
A show called Folk Radio will air on WBAI, 99.5 FM, Tuesdays from 10:00 p.m. to 12:00 midnight. An eclectic program which delves into the wide array of folk music, with rotating hosts. Executive Producers are Richard Barr and Edward Haber, former WBAI Music Directors.
Marie Mularczyk and Richard O’Connell sent in news about their recent vacation. They “spent a fabulous week in January in Venice, Italy on an early music tour with Tenet. We heard concerts of period instruments by Monteverdi and others in beautiful old cathedrals. We ran into a lute player street muscian, sailed in a gondola, admired Murano glass, visited museums and enjoyed Venetian cuisine. There’s lots of history here and we didn’t miss the cars at all!”

Sadly, we hear from Glen Pertz that his mother Doris left this world on December 30. She requested no service or funeral but she wanted to be remembered with music, singing and story telling; this event will be in the afternoon of March 15th.
