Irish Traditional Music Session: Mondays, 8-11pm
Tenor banjo, harmonica and fiddle player Don Meade and friends get together every Monday night with a featured performer for an Irish music session in the back room of this historic Hell’s Kitchen bar/restaurant. Free admission; food and drink are available. Musicians, singers, & listeners welcome. At the Landmark Tavern, 626 11th Ave. (on 46th St); co-sponsored with and led by Don Meade; info 212-247-2562 or www.blarneystar.com/. See website for featured performers.

Sunnyside Singers Club: every Wednesday, 8-11pm
We have the following from Donie Carroll:

[On Wednesdays] we will have a virtual sing-along on Zoom for all our regulars from our Sunnyside Singers Club at 8.00pm and we will go 'til we get tired. This is just to stay in touch with everyone and relieve the boredom that some of us may be going through. Of course everyone will be welcome from near or far so all you gotta do is send on your email address for a invite. We've already done a test and while its not the same as a regular session, it will be fine in this situation. Alice Farrell-Pearlman will be the technical expert on the night so if you want to participate, you should download the free version of Zoom to your computer, and contact Alice Farrell-Pearlman at aafarrell[at]gmail.com. She will sign you up and send you an invitation.

Whenever things return to normal, we invite you to come join us every Wednesday at 8pm for a 3-hour pub style sing-around. All songs are welcome, as are acoustic instruments. Co-sponsored with, and held at the Aubergine Cafe, 49-22 Skillman Ave., corner of 50th Street in Woodside, Queens. Occasionally there is a featured guest performer for part of the evening. Free admission; a voluntary contribution is requested on guest nights. Nearest subway is 52nd St. on the #7 Local. Info: 718-899-1735. www.facebook.com/sunnysidesingersclub. Featured Performer: May 20, Mike Glick

Maritime & Folk Song Session; Sunday, May 3rd; 2-4pm
Monthly in the Summer sing out on board the historic Wavertree. Usually at the South Street Seaport, The May outdoor program is canceled, hopefully to be replaced by a virtual meeting -- For updates check South Street Seaport Museum's website at: www.seany.org. Hosted by The New York Packet and the South Street Seaport, and co-sponsored by the Folk Music Society of NY.

Upper West Side Song Swap: Sunday, May 3rd; 5-8pm
Please come and share your own songs - new songs, old songs, spoken word, poetry, whatever you have that you might like to share is welcome! Bring your instruments, your VOICES, your ears and enthusiasm to the New York Hostelling International, 891 Amsterdam Avenue, Manhattan, at 103rd Street. First timer? Never performed before? This is the place to give it a try. There is no charge – and Hostelling International has a modestly priced cafe with non-continued on next page alcoholic drinks, sandwiches, desserts and more. Join us at Hostelling International, located at 891 Amsterdam Avenue between 103rd and 104th Streets in the New York Room.

Folk Open Sing: Wednesdays, May 6th; 7-10pm
Join us on the first Wednesday of each month for an open sing. Bring your voice, instruments, friends, neighbors, and children. Drop by for a couple of songs or the whole evening. At the Ethical Culture Society, 53 Prospect Park West, Brooklyn (near 2nd St.). (If door is locked, ring the BSEC bell.) Directions: F or Q train to 7th Ave.; 2 or 3 train to Grand Army Plaza. Host: Tom Weir. Info: 212-695-592.

David Jones & Friends: Friday, May 15th; 8pm
At St. John's Lutheran Church, 81 Christopher Street, Manhattan. Closest subway is Christopher Street on the #1. Contribution: general $25, members of FMSNY, Folk Project, and LITMA $20, students $15, kids under 12 $10. Tickets at the door.

Shanty Sing: Sunday, May 17th; 2-5pm
We co-sponsor the Shanty Sing on the 3rd Sunday of the month. The William Main Doerflinger Memorial Sea Shanty Sessions at the Noble Maritime Collection (to give the official title) are from 2 to 5pm at the Noble Gallery, Building D, Snug Harbor Cultural Center, 1000 Richmond Terrace, Staten Island. Snug Harbor is accessible by the S40 bus from the Staten Island Ferry Terminal and by car. For more information about the Noble Collection, go to http://www.noblemaritime.org -- click on "Visitor Information" for directions. For info contact Bob Conroy: RConroy421(at)aol.com or 347-267-9394. See the documentary of this event: vimeo.com/250883513; Password: harbortown.

Spring Weekend - May 22-25; CANCELED
Because of unavailability of the location, we once again have had to cancel the Spring weekend. It is unlikely that another location can be found (or even will be open), so we had no choice. Think of it as being postponed until the Fall; which would make it the Fall weekend, which we are still planning to have in late October.

Sheena Mullan at Sunnyside Singers Club. March 11, 2020
Before stores were closed, the Sunnyside Singers Club held its weekly session at the Aubergine Cafe in Woodside, Queens, NY. Among the 16 people present was our guest performer Sheena Mullan, originally from Co. Derry. Unfortunately, that was our last session until further notice. We might be back in a month, or in six months, but WE WILL BE BACK! All of us from the Sunnyside Singers Club thank the Folk Music Society of New York for its support.

[See the listing on page 2 for news of virtual meetings.]
What a strange time this is. It proves that one needs to be prepared for emergencies, even if you don’t have a crystal ball to see what’s ahead in the future. Unfortunately, our Federal Government did not prepare for an emergency and is slow to respond to this crisis. I am impressed by Governor Cuomo and others who have responded so well in these difficult times. He and others do believe that all of our lives are important.

As you can see, all of our events in April have been cancelled. We don’t know what May will bring us. What is so heartwarming is that so many people are reaching out via the internet, by telephone and in so many other ways. There are so many people who are reaching out to help. Music is one way that we can find solace and joy. It’s not very hard to check the internet and find people making music.

On an even sadder note, Ann Green passed away this month, unrelated to the coronavirus. We will miss her positive attitude, her inquisitive mind, and her happy smile. There is a memorial in this newsletter.

Keep safe and healthy. Don’t take any unnecessary risks when you go out and remember that our music community loves you and cares about you.

Do We Have your Email?

We anticipate that it may be harder to send out USPS mail in the future and so we want to be sure we have your e-mail address. This way we can also notify you of last minute virtual meetings, etc.

If you think we might not have your address on file, please send it to me, Don(at)folknusicny.org, and I’ll make sure it is entered. (Our membership system is presently down so you cannot check it yourself.)

Heather Wood sends the following:

When life begins to get you down
And troubles seem oppressive
Remember not to wear a frown
And not to get depressive

Slap a smile upon your face
Hum a cheerful ditty.
Remember tears are out of place
And red eyes are not pretty.

Do some good deeds just for you —
You're the one who needs 'em!
Forget the nasty ingrates who
Bite the hand that feeds 'em.

If the world won't go your way,
Don't give up in sorrow.
Remember there's another day
A brand new tomorrow.

Our Weekends – Survey results

Firstly, many thanks to those of you who returned the Weekend Survey we sent out with the ballots in December.

It seems that people like to come to our weekends primarily to make music and socialize with friends old and new. Performances and workshops from staff ranked high on the list, with informal singing and playing not far behind.

In general, the preference was for hotel-style accommodation, with private bathrooms, rather than a more rustic camp with dormitory-style housing.

So this Fall, we hope to be back at the Hudson Valley resort in Kerhonkson NY.

As explained on page 3, this Spring’s Weekend is canceled. See you in the Fall!
We have more sad news. Ann Green died on February 21st. She had been coping with cancer for several years and recently was undergoing additional treatments. However, her sudden death was unexpected. She passed away at home in the apartment that she loved and had so thoughtfully decorated.

Ann was raised in Brooklyn where she attended Erasmus Hall High School. She went on to Cornell University where she majored in art. Her first career was in education -- she taught young children. Later she worked for publications, using her artistic skills for projects such as layout design.

A longtime member of our folk music society -- since about 1970 -- Ann often attended club events and was a good friend to many of us. Julia Friend remembers Ann as being “a youthful, stylish person, always pleasant and always classy.” Ann and Ruth Lipman were neighbors as well as friends and shared an interest in nurturing plants. Rosalie Friend reflects that “going to an art museum with an artist is a treat and being with Ann anywhere was always a pleasure.”

Ann was interested in politics, old radio shows, went swimming and played ping pong. She was passionate about her acting classes and often performed. A “crafts person” who made jewelry, her attire usually included one or more of her creations. Her friend, Dorothy Wiedis, describes Ann’s meticulous, thorough nature and remembers her as “always helpful to others and a thoughtful, very loyal friend.” Her friend and neighbor, Ellen Stevens-Roseman, recalls how Ann, an avid reader, loved to sit and read in the garden behind their building and how active Ann was in condominium affairs.

She loved the blues. This extended to a recording on her telephone’s answering device that began: “This is Ann F. Green and I’ve got the telephone tag blues.” At the time of this writing, her message box is full but perhaps we can transmit some thoughts here: ”May you rest, from a life well-lived in peace” -- from Ellen. And from all of us in Pinewoods: “We’ll miss you Ann. So long, it’s been good to know you.”

A memorial gathering will be held on a date to be arranged. Thank you Dorothy and Ellen for much of this information.

Ruth Lipman and Rosalie Friend

Repeating Events Listings
Because of complete cancellation of all events for an indeterminate length of time, we are not including any listing of events this month. (Repeating events are generally not included in the events calendar and are listed separately.) For a list as it was before cancellation, go to: www.folkmusicincy.org/repeating.html. Schedules change; you should always call and check first.
The Folk Music Society of New York, Inc./NY Pinewoods Folk Music Club was started in 1965 and is a 501(c)(3) non-profit, educational corporation; an affiliate of the Country Dance & Song Society of America and a member of the Folk Alliance. Our annual report is available from our office, 444 W. 54 St, #7, NYC, NY 10019 or from the Office of Charities Registration, N.Y. Dept. of State, 162 Washington Av, Albany, NY 12232.

We have approximately 350 members and run concerts, week-ends, classes, and get-togethers, all with an emphasis on traditional music. The Society is run entirely by volunteers with a Board of Directors elected by the membership. The working officers below (members of and elected by the board) welcome your help and suggestions.

Memberships are listed on the back page; regular memberships help support the society and include one newsletter subscription (11 issues yearly) and reduced admissions. Won’t you join us?

TradMaD Camp 2020
August 29-September 4 CANCELED
Registration is now open for this end of summer rite! We'll be singing, picking, dancing, jamming, swimming, relaxing; all the things we love about Pinewoods Camp in Plymouth, Mass.

www.tradmadcamp.org: Read all about the wonderful stuff

Coronavirus - COVID-19

We are waiting for information from Pinewoods Camp as to whether the camp will open this Summer at all. We are continuing with TradMaD camp plans for now, but are actively monitoring the situation and will adjust as necessary.

Since Pinewoods camp has canceled the entire 2020 season, TradMaD camp is cancelled this year. See you next year, Saturday August 28 to Friday September 3!
Sound reinforcement: Your program deserves the best, whether it’s a concert or a large festival. Location recording: Direct to stereo or Digital multi-track recording and editing. Acoustic Folk and Classical are specialties. Don Wade, Collegium Sound; 718-426-8555; Don(at)collegiumsound.com. [1-21]
