From the Editor

Eileen Pentel

We hope that you are all safe and healthy. It is a hard time for all of us, but I know that we will come through it. At least there is a lot of music that one can find on the internet. It really helps to get through these times. The Seaport Monthly Chantey, the Brooklyn Folk Open Sing and the Sunnyside Sing are all singing virtually. Tune in and participate.

This is a reduced newsletter. We don't know when we will be able to go to concerts, visit friends and so on. It is crucially important that before you venture out, besides wearing masks, gloves and washing hands frequently, you check whether something is open. You don't want to go somewhere just to find out it is not happening in person, but maybe only virtually if at all.

FMSNY is having a virtual concert with Gina Forsyth on Friday, May 8th. Information is on page 1 and on our website, www.folkmusicny.org.

We have sad news, Bernice Silver passed away due to the corona virus. She was an amazing woman. There will be more about her in the next issue.

Ruth does not have a column for this month. She is asking for you to send your thoughts about how/what they are/were doing in this time being sheltered to share. I will say that some of the events I have zoomed in on has people from all over the country and overseas joining us. That's at least one good thing.

Don't forget to fill out your CENSUS FORMS. It will make the difference for the next 10 years of how many people will represent us and how much funding our state will get. This is so crucial now.
